Sign into hotmail email account with name

Windows Live Hotmail is a web-based email service developed by Microsoft. Hotmail has a SmartScreen spam filter, ability to edit and view Word documents from the email application and unlimited storage capacity. Hotmail is a free service and you can sign up for one or more Hotmail accounts directly from the Windows Live Hotmail homepage. Go to the home page of Hotmail.com. Click the Sign up button. Enter the Hotmail email address you want to use and press the Check Availability button to see if the email address you want is available. Enter and confirm the password you want to use to access your Hotmail account. Enter the name, country, country, postal code, gender and year of birth. Enter the displayed security code and click on the Accept button to create your new Hotmail account. From Jennifer Van Barn many different companies offer free email accounts, but one of the most popular and most used Hotmail. Creating a free Hotmail account is easy and time-consuming. Little information is needed and the process of creating the account can be done by almost anyone. With a Hotmail account, users can sign in to other websites that want a Windows Live user ID. Go to the Hotmail site to create a free Hotmail email account. The sign-in page offers hotmail sign-in options for current users or create a new account for those without one. To set up a free account, click the option to create a new account. When this option is selected, you will be brought to a webpage that requests information. Fill in the information that is requested on the webpage that opens. You will be asked to select an email address name. If the name the user selects is taken, you'll get options that you can choose from. You are also asked to create and re-enter a password, enter an alternate email address, or ask a security question. This is done for password reset problems in case you lose or forget your password. Information such as name, country, postal code, gender and year of birth will also be requested. To ensure a secure connection, you must enter the characters seen in a small dialog box. The last step is to read and accept the terms of the privacy statement at the bottom of the Web page. Click on the button to accept the terms at the bottom of the webpage as soon as everything is filled in accurately and completely. You will then be taken to your new email page. At this time, your free Hotmail email account is complete and you can start searching around the email page to learn the options and options it offers. Offers.
