Available on more than 84 million Xbox devices worldwide, The deal between BBC Worldwide and developers Microsoft Studios and Mojang will give Minecraft players access to various Doctor Who assets, allowing them to change their avatars to resemble their favorite characters from the show. The first package - priced at just $2.99/£1.99/€2.85/$2.95AUS - will include characters inspired by the Twelfth Doctor, plus five other Doctors, each of their on-screen friends and some of the Doctor's most famous enemies including his nemesis, the Daleks. The deal will bring more packages over time, introducing many of the most famous characters of the last 50 years Doctor Who. Each skin pack will display six Doctors and will be released regularly after the episode is broadcast in 8. Rikesh Desai, Director of Digital Entertainment and Gaming at BBC Worldwide UK says we are constantly looking for new and innovative ways to bring Doctor Who content to our loyal fans. Working collaboratively with Microsoft, we've created exciting new products that will allow Doctor Who fans to create their own new adventures at the heart of Minecraft's iconic world. Minecraft is one of the best-selling Xbox games of all time with over 13 million sales to date. The deal to bring Doctor Who to Minecraft builds on BBC Worldwide's successful partnership with Microsoft, which has seen Microsoft publish a Forza racing game complete with Top Gear-themed challenges and features. Minecraft is a game about breaking and placing blocks. At first, people build structures to protect against night monsters, but as the game grows, players work together to create beautiful and imaginative things. It can also be about going on an adventure with friends or watching the sun rise over the blocked ocean. It's beautiful. Brave players fight bad things in The Nether, which is scarier than pretty. You can also visit the mushroom soil if it sounds more like your cup of tea. Tea.
