Scout promises are the way Scouts agree to act every day against each other and to the people of the world around them: In my honor, I will try: To serve God* and my country, to help people at all times, and to live by the Girl Scout Law. We are 2.5 million strong — over 1.7 million girls and 750,000 adults who believe in the power of every G.I.R.L. (Go-getter, Innovator, Risk-taker, Leader)™ to change the world. Our incredible journey began more than 100 years ago with G.I.R.L., Juliette Gordon Daisy Low. On March 12, 1912, in Savannah, Georgia, she organized the first Scout troop, and every year since, we honor her vision and legacy, building girls of courage, confidence, and character that make the world a better place. We are a leading leadership development organization for girls. And with programs from coast to coast and around the world, Girl Scouts offers every girl the chance to practice lifelong leadership, adventure, and success. Girl Scouting builds girls courage, confidence, and character, which makes the world a better place. In honor of me, I will try: To serve God* and my country, to help people at all times, and to live by the Girl Scout Law.
