The file is saved in Microsoft Word .docx format and can be used with newer versions of Word that support standard XML documents (files with .docx extensions - Word 2007, 2010, 2013, 2016, 2019 & Office 365). If you have one of the earlier versions of Word that only supports the .doc (Word 2000, 2002/XP & 2003), or if you don't have Word Installed, use Microsoft Office Online or one of the free Microsoft Word/Microsoft Office alternatives FreeOffice TextMaker, LibreOffice Writer and Google Docs, all of which are free (OpenOffice Writer unfortunately has formatting issues when opening our calendars), or use docx to doc converters (available for online or offline use). Also compatible with Microsoft Office for Mac (macOS) and Microsoft Office mobile for iPad / iOS, Android and Windows 10 mobile. Read more about different versions of Word and file formats in Wikipedia. Freer Word calendar templates are also available from the Microsoft templates gallery (calendar section). Canadian public holidays (by law) in our calendar: Canadian public holidays as defined in the Canadian Labor Code are New Year's Good Friday, Victoria's Day, Canada Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, Memorial Day, Christmas Day and Boxing Day (nine in total). Other public holidays, such as Family Day and Civil Holiday, are declared individually by provincial and territorial governments. Their names vary and some are observed only in a small number of provinces. We only display the most observed public holidays on our calendar. For detailed information on all public holidays in Canada, please see their holiday table and regional validity on Wikipedia. Important note on paper size: All templates can be downloaded below in US station paper sizes (8.5 by 11 inches – as used in the US, Canada, Mexico, the Philippines, and some South American countries).
