Alle year For more information on how to involve Houses of Rent and Sale near this school This school is rated above average in school quality compared to other schools in Washington DC. Students here are doing above average academic improvement year after year, ... More of this school has about average results on how well it is serving disadvantaged students, and students perform about the average state test. Students at this school are making much more academic progress given where they were last year, compared to similar students in the state. The results of the parents' council tests at this school are roughly the same as the state average, although still below the state's highest-performing schools. Because test scores in some states are so low, many students at this school may not be performing at grade level. Main tip Do you notice something missing or confusing? Disadvantaged equity students at this school are performing about as well as other students in the state, but this school may still have achievement gaps. Council parents ENVIRONMENT In general, school is good for educators who are looking for a place to start then transition to other aspects of teaching or location. The salary is good, but the level of stress and communication /organization of daily school operations can improve. The staff is a team unit can improve a little more. Again, general communication is an important piece that plays an important role when it comes to the daily flow of school, staff and interactions with students and their families. Was this review useful? Lack of communication, FavortismeThe salary is great, but the administrator does not communicate with the teachers about what is going on. There is also a sense of favouritism. Some teachers are friends of the administration and therefore get to do what they want, while the rest of us have to deal with it. The atmosphere it just happens for the administrator to choose and choose who to show to the board when they walk through the building, their friends. Everyone else is not seen as important. These friends know what's going on in front of another teacher because, again, they're the friends of the administrators (they even know who's going to let go. this useful review? Higher Up has problems with clear communication of what is expected of its employees. Interacting with parents and students is the most enjoyable communication.with highs, advances in the workplace Was this review useful? They don't teach middle school science or social studies, they literally teach math and they teach math twice instead of teaching science and social studies. The administration is in the face with a smile. They say something to parents, but they say something different to the staff. They boast of not suspending students while cutting deals under the table with students who behave badly to leave school for the day! Here's an extreme favoritism. They are in their records on suspension rates and qualifications. The administration doesn't go ahead with what they say they're going to do. If you want your child to have a good education, don't take them here, they're likely to come out just knowing how to take a test, but not knowing one of history or science. Breaks, art class, math teachersKids do not learn social studies or science, the administration is in the face Was this review useful? The compensation and benefits of 5 starsThe elderly to work to serve the children lunch and enjoy working there my co-workers was very helpful my work was very easy to make learn quickly that everyone was respectful wish that I could return, but I was fired because of the salary . Was this review useful? Great school to work with. Engaging with children is the most rewarding part. Feeling that you can and did make a difference. The staff worked together very well as a team. Was this review useful? Great Community of Teachers and Leaders A great place to work. I've done a lot of great relationships with staff and parents. I like to work with a diverse group of students daily with being able to use various strategies and differentiated instruction.good relationship with the community and staff Was this review useful? Urban Environment, growth potential, rapid pace of studies In my current environment I cultivate a school culture that promotes academic achievement, community and security by establishing a professional and supportive relationship with students, parents, staff and stakeholders. I am able to work with all cultures and quickly adjust to situations. I like to witness scholars develop academically to make valuable contributions to society. I keep growing professionally. I look forward to contributing to my level of detail as well and effectively completing various tasks. Was this review useful? Productive learning environmentAll day I learned something new while working with PSPDC. My supervisor was very helpful in teaching everything knowledge about human resources. The employees were friendly and welcoming when arriving and leaving the practices. Free lunch, prolonged lunch breaks, lows was helpful for this review?
