It is the company's third store in Arizona since expanding to the state in July. Natural Grocers is a grocery chain based in Denver that offers only natural and organic products with the highest standards at affordable prices, giving Sedona residents and visitors a wide choice of healthy, fresh, organic and natural foods, supplements, home and body care choices. As part of its core values, Natural Grocers only offers USDA certified organic products and meat from animals that are raised naturally without the use of antibiotics or hormones. The grocery chain also has an extensive dietary supplement and body care department, and a large selection of gluten-free and other special dietary products. In addition, the shop offers a large selection of delicious organic and natural foods free from artificial colors, flavors, sweeteners and cured oils. For more than 55 years, the Isely family has managed Natural Grocers. Part of the family's commitment to maintaining a true natural food store is to avoid selling any products that contain artificial ingredients such as sweeteners, flavors, preservatives, hardened oils or produce grown with synthetic pesticides. See: What we will not sell and why. Today awareness of the benefits of eating natural foods is higher than ever and continues to grow, helping Natural Grocers expand to 12 states. For decades, Sedona has been an epicenter of healthy, all-natural life so our new store fits perfectly with the city's culture, residents and visitors, said Kemper Isely, Natural Grocers co-president. We look forward to increasing our presence in Arizona. Nutritional CoachingIn additions to only offering foods that meet the Isely family's high standards of quality and health, Natural Grocers also offers free nutritional coaching – from individualized to meal planning, to general general about diet and health. Each Natural Grocers has a credentialed Nutritional Health CoachSM in-house and all store staff are trained to help shoppers find products and resources to support optimal health. The company also offers free seminars and speakers of interest to the community (schedule available in the store and online at . Environmentally friendly conceptTrue to Natural Grocers philosophy, the new store was retrofitted for use at 1915 W. State Road 89A. To suit Natural Grocers, the space was designed with a variety of energy-efficient features, including motion light sensors, 100 percent after consumer content tiles, polished concrete floors and commercial grade LED lights. In addition, Natural Grocers 100% shopping bag is free (no paper, no plastic). In the event customers forget to bring their reusable bags, Natural Grocers offers free recycled boxes; but of course, Natural Grocers sells cheap reusable shopping bags as well. About Natural Grocers by Vitamin CottageSince 1955, Colorado based, family operated, Natural Grocers by Vitamin Cottage has grown from the Mom & Pop grass-roots business, started by Margaret & Philip Isely. Their children have now grown stores into a national chain with locations in Colorado, Texas, Utah, Wyoming, Oklahoma, Missouri, New Mexico, Montana, Kansas, Idaho, Nebraska and Arizona – employing about 1,600 employees so far and still run by their children. The original family goal of offering each product at a daily affordable SM is a basis of business, allowing customers to afford the products required to maintain their own healthcare. Education and customer service are cornerstones of Natural Grocers, as evidenced by the company's in-store nutrition support programs, free Nutritional Health Coaches and free public health seminars. Natural Grocers provides a variety of 18,000 – 21,000 organic and all natural products, selling only USDA certified organic products, all natural body care products and one of the largest selections in the country of vitamins, minerals and herbs, combined with a knowledgeable and trained staff.
