They were very professional and straight on my right. I had the pleasure of dealing with the Consumer Rights PLLC A on 2 different occasions the employee was very courtesy and helpful and was familiar with the collection agency in question and called the discontinuing, I was even compensated. I would recommend this company to anyone who will be true to this type of harassment a very satisfying customer. Because of a lie to a third-party paying debt that threatens me financially I almost make mistakes of paying the money to pay debt collectors I couldn't afford. The people here have been friendly, knowledgeable, and solving my case quickly. thank you very much!! There is a debt to be made by me regarding a car accident that happened in early 2020. I have discussed payment plan options with this company and will decline to receive what I can offer. I am a low income family, and a single mother of two grandchildren. I don't deny any payments I'm trying to offer what I can afford, and they keep my threat threats and my grandmother takes us to court, stop my license and garnish my salary when I have not denied any payments! I'm trying to make payments as much as I can but they refuse to get what I can offer, they don't care about how you provide food for all your families to care about getting money the way they want it. The threats are made, to make me and my grandmother scared and desperate that they don't want to pay them anything at all!... Read More Customer Reviews! I left a comment today based on the poor customer service that I received from a lawyer at that location by the name of Ashe. When I talked to him he was very crude. Instead of taking the professional way to explain to the customer, to me what the problem was oh, he chose to automatically have an attitude. I simply called to verify that I made an online payment and I wanted my automated payments canceled so it would not be drafted from the account. All he kept saying was that I didn't have an automatic payment. for me this was easy because I called for the past five months when then was set up to cancel the payments after I made a payment online. but he was just crude and he didn't care if I understood what was going on. I had to ask her a series of questions and her negative answers in her response, I finally got the resolution on my own. when I told him that I was going to file a complaint, he like he wanted it. I know that is strange to say but when I look online at Google for their reviews, there are several complaints against this particular representative or lawyer. I think it's very uncalled for someone to be crude to a customer regardless of what the reasoning is. I know that you took covid-19, a lot of workers working in the house. But if you can't keep your home attitude and your professional attitude I don't believe any of the work all along. I'm going to make sure I let any of my business colleagues know that this is not the company they want to send customers to because it will be a reflection of them. Bad customer service, poor customer service at this location. I will be happy once the final payment is made so I don't have to deal with this company anymore....
