Tell us your story because sanctuary dogs are full of love! Is it because they know you saved them and love you harder for it? I can't say for sure, but yes. Jokes aside, there are three things all sanctuary dogs need to thrive in their new home:Older shelter dogs, usually 1 year+ old, may have experienced a lot of trauma, which often leads to one of 8 common behavioral problems: anxiety and aggression towards people & pets Maintaining inexperienced behaviorThe regression of social skillsFor communication and aggression related to barrier issues are fixable! Your dog's not broken, they're just damaged. You can fix them with enough love, patience, and a good training program. During the COVID-19 epidemic, finding good dog trainers can be difficult. Like everything else, dog training is only moving. But there are great online dog trainers who have been shown to work and can help get your new puppy on the right path. Path.
