Printer-friendly Securities Account Control Agreement - Wells Fargo Bank NA and Handspring Inc. SECURITIES ACCOUNT CONTROL AGREEMENT (Wells Fargo Lender Intermediary) THIS SECURITIES ACCOUNT CONTROL AGREEMENT (this Agreement) is entered into as of 16. RECITALS A. The customer claims that a particular Wells Capital Management account (account number) (securities account) with an intermediary in accordance with the agreement between the intermediary and the customer as of January 9, 2015. B. The secured party, buyer and intermediary have agreed to enter into this Agreement to perfect the security interests of the secured party in collateral, as defined below. Therefore, in view of each other's alliances and promises, the parties agree as follows: 1. As used here: (a) the term Collateral means: (i) the securities account; (ii) all financial assets attributed to the securities account; (iii) all security rights with regard to financial assets attributed to the securities account; (iv) any and all other investment assets or assets held or recorded in the securities account; and (v) any substitutes or substitutes for and revenues from the sale or other disposal of any of the worse than burning, including without limitation, cash revenues; and (b) the terms investment in property, order of law, financial assets and security law have the appropriate meanings specified in the California Unified Commercial Code. The Parties thus agree that all assets, including without limitation, cash, certificates of deposit and mutual funds, should be treated as financial assets at any time in the securities account. 2. AGREEMENT FOR CONTROL. The broker is authorized by the buyer and agrees to comply with all rights orders ordered by the Secure Party in relation to the securities account, and any other requests or instructions from the Insured Party regarding the disposal and/or delivery of collateral, without further consent or instructions from the buyer or any other party. 3. BUYERS' RIGHTS IN RELATION TO COLLATERAL. (a) Until the intermediary is otherwise informed by the Insured Party: (i) The buyer or any party authorised by the buyer to act in relation to the securities account may provide instructions for trading in the intermediary in respect of securities account; and (ii) The Intermediary may distribute to the buyer or any other party in accordance with the customer's instructions that part of the collateral consisting of interest and/or cash dividends earned on financial assets held in the securities account. (b) Without the prior written consent of the insured party, except to the extent permitted in Section 3a: (i) neither the buyer nor any party other than the Insured Party may withdraw collateral from the securities account; and (ii) The Intermediary will not comply with any order on the right or requirement to withdraw collateral from the securities account provided by any party other than the Insured Party. -1-2 (c) Upon receipt of written or oral notification from the Insured Party: (i) The Agency shall immediately cease to comply with the rights orders and other instructions relating to collateral, including the securities account, from all parties except <PAGE>Secured Parties; and (ii) The Intermediary may not further distribute collateral to any party other than the Insured Party, nor allow any further voluntary changes in financial assets. 4. ADMISSIONS OF INTERMEDIARIES. The intermediary acknowledges that: (a) The securities account is held with the intermediary solely on behalf of the buyer. (b) The Intermediary has no knowledge of any claim, security interest or collateral, other than: (i) security interests for the benefit of the Secured Party; and (ii) Liabilities of intermediaries providing fees and charges or payment of open trade obligations, as described in Section 4 (c) Any claim, security interest or lien for any collateral now acquired by the intermediary or at any time thereafter shall be minor and subordinate to the security interests of the Secured Party in collateral, except for lien by intermediaries providing: (i) fees and charges owed by the customer in respect of the operation of securities accounts; and (ii) the payment owed to the intermediary for open trade obligations for purchases in and for the securities account. 5. BROKER AND BUYER CONTRACTS. The intermediary and the buyer agree that: (a) The Intermediary will mark its books, records and systems to reflect the security interests of the Secured Party in collateral and will notify any party inquiring about customers' accounts with an intermediary to whom or to whom the intermediary is legally required or allowed to provide information. (b) The intermediary shall send copies of all statements concurrently relating to the securities account to the customer and the insured party. (c) The Intermediary will immediately notify the Secured Party<PAGE> if any other party confirms any claim, security interest or claims any collateral, and the intermediary may not enter into any control, custodial or other similar agreement with any other party that would create or the existence of such other claims, security interests or a notable lid. (d) Without the prior written consent of the insured party, the intermediary and the client shall not modify, amend or terminate the Account Agreement, except: (i) amendments to reflect normal and reasonable changes in the intermediary's fees and securities account handling fees; and (ii) operational changes initiated by the intermediary until they change any of the rights of the secured party. 6. VARIOUS. (a) This Agreement does not create any obligation or duty of intermediary other than as expressly stated herein. (b) In the event of any conflict between this Agreement and the Account Agreement or any other agreement between the intermediary and the buyer, the terms of this Agreement are controlled. (c) All notices, requests and requests that any party is or could make to any other party in accordance with any provision of this Agreement must be in writing (unless otherwise stated) and provided to each party at the address or facsimile number listed below its signature, or to another address or facsimile number that any party may determine by written notice to all other parties. Any such notification, request and request shall be deemed to be made on days or as follows: (i) if sent by -2- <PAGE> 3 manual delivery, upon delivery; (ii) if sent by facsimile, upon receipt; and (iii) if sent by post, on an earlier date of receipt or three (3) days after the deposit in the post office, first class and post office. (d) This Agreement shall be binding and secured for the benefit of heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, heirs and the awarding of parties. This Agreement may only be amended or amended in writing signed by all parties so far. (e) This Agreement terminates upon receipt of the mediator's written notification from the Insured Party stating explicitly that the Insured Party no longer claims any security interest in collateral. (f) This Agreement shall be governed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of California. In witness, the parties have carried out this Agreement as of the date first mentioned above.
