Joe's stone crab las vegas reservations disappointments, we decided on Joe's Stone Cancer. We've been there a few times before and it's always been an extraordinary experience. Needless to say, our experience last night was over the top, again. As soon as we entered, we were greeted by The Maiter d. He welcomed us to the restaurant and told him that we had a reservation for 7:30 p.m. He was very pleasant and told us that our table was ready and we were displaced at the table in seconds. We were greeted by our waiter, Neil, just as quickly. He was very polite and eager to answer any questions we might have. We talked about some wine choices, and then he took our order. It's getting better. The restaurant was quite busy and he had two more tables not long after he got ours. One of those was 8-10 people. The service never suffered. If Neil was phenomenal. The menu is rich and there's something for everyone. My husband had the legs from Alaska, and I had a little fillet. It was perfect. My husband and I talked about how amazing and consistent joe's experiences have been. I knew I had to say something to the manager. When we asked about the check, I told her the same thing I'm telling you. It was very pleasant to talk to and to perceive the feedback. After all, Joe is a very well-oiled machine. I don't think there's a slacker in the house. Every person we contacted was happy to be there and report to the service is incomparable. On a scale of 1-5, I'd give them 20 stars! It's not at stake. There are a lot of restaurants in Las Vegas that can learn something from Joe. It's an experience you don't want to miss! I'd recommend that Joe be with everyone I know. Very good service. In fact, Alaskan legs are better than the stone crabs for which they are known. Swordfish, parmesan with halibut bark and mussels are good. Have not tried beef (not beefeaters), but based on seafood, should be good. Side dishes large and large portions. (Hashto brown mandatory) Older waiters in tuxedos are friendly and attentive. Joe's a favorite of this local. It's worth the wait and the money! Las Vegas, · Seafood · $$$The the legendary Joe's Stone Crab opened in Miami Beach in 1913. That's why we're excited to implement technology developed by AIRPHX (pronounced air-fix) in all of our restaurants across the country by November. After extensive research and with the advice of the experts, we have come to the conclusion that this is the best system for us. This is how AIRPHX works features cold plasma chambers designed to kill harmful air and surface organisms throughout the day. Used in hospitals, health facilities, ollympic training centers, universities, police and fire stations, and over 30 common bacteria and viruses, both in the air and on the surface. This is just one more important step we are taking to continue to improve health and safety measures and we want to thank you for your constant trust in us. Our continued commitment to our guests and employees We closely monitor the advice and guidance from the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) and the World Health Organization (WHO). We have increased the frequency and extent of our cleaning practices, such as additional wipes on all hard surfaces, including the kitchen, bathrooms, bars and dining rooms. We have one-time and digital menus and will maintain complete renovation and continuous hand washing procedures. Guests are required to wear masks at the restaurant. Masks are necessary during all interactions with the service team and be removed only when eating or drinking. All employees are required to wear masks. All guests and employees will have their temperatures before entering the restaurant. Anyone with a temperature above 100.0 degrees Fahrenheit will not be allowed to dine with us, but will be offered to wear. We will provide additional resources to guests and employees, including hand sansiferants, additional soap and paper towels in the toilets. Every steak was cooked just like... (medium rare or medium) each time, and then they filled up off the table. It was worth every penny. I also drank crab and Caesar salad. The biscuit was not very hot and the salad was big enough for 2. Booking by 1955-1999, everything was excellent. Side dishes include potatoes lyolai, broccoli and wonderful cream spinach. Then there are the desserts. One joke in many states and cities is who has the best lemon pie. And the new answer is Joe's. My in-laws thought my wife and I were joking until they agreed. The peanut butter mousse on Oreo's bark is a big part to share and one of the best banana cream pie pies anywhere. The team waited from maitre d to the waiter and the bus staff are all the highest ind. polite, inspiring, and friendly. This type of service turns dining into a dining room. Excellent all the way and deserving of high praise. Like most restaurants of this caliber, you get what you pay for. Excellent service, fine service and refined experience will cost a little more than the buffet. But there are certainly a lot more expensive places in Vegas that don't match Joe's. Very good price! That's right! More
