Average amounts are determined annually based on statistical data from a variety of sources, including periodic surveys of UC Santa Cruz students. The individual cost may vary. *For off-campus rental options, including market costs for one-bedroom apartments and other housing arrangements, please refer to the UCSC Community Rentals website. . *For more information on the market costs of one- and two-bedroom apartments and one-person bedrooms in private homes near campus, refer to off-campus accommodation rates SB467.  School fees and fees published here are estimates based on amounts currently approved. These figures may not be definitive. The actual taxes, taxes and expenses are to change by the Regents of the University of California and may be affected by increases or reductions in state funding, or other developments. If different levels of taxes and charges are approved for 2020-2021, the costs and financial aid can be adjusted. The amount of fees and fees listed above includes $12,570 for fees on teaching/student services and $1,419 for campus fees. Tuition and compulsory fees have been set regardless of the method of education and will not be reimbursed in the event that instructions continue to be offered remotely for any part of the 2020-21 academic year. Regents at the University of California require all students to be covered by a health insurance plan. All full-time and part-time undergraduate students are automatically enrolled and charged for the University of California (UC SHIP) student health insurance plan unless they choose to file an online insurance waiver that confirms they have health insurance coverage comparable to the Health Center. Note: The financial aid will not cover the cost of health insurance for students who choose to opt out of UC USHIP. University costs 2019-2020 Due to COVID-19 issues, our office will have limited service availability. Please check our contact information for our updated service hours and availability. March 2 is the priority deadline for university students to apply for financial aid. This deadline is important to take into account for all types of aid managed by UC Santa Cruz. You must be a California resident to be considered for institutional grant programs. If you are a California resident and are a new Cal Grant candidate, you must also submit the GPA verification form to the California Student Aid Commission by March 2. 1 April - 1 May New university students admitted to the autumn quarter who submit a FAFSA or Dream APPLICATION will receive an offer of help The offer of conditional aid is based on the data provided on the application for financial aid. The more accurate the data, the more accurate the estimate of aid. If the information provided about your financial aid application has errors, we will notify you and notify you of instructions to resolve issues in your MyUCSC to-do list. Take action to resolve any errors the application of financial aid as quickly as possible. The conditional aid offer is subject to change if your application information is incorrect, incomplete, or does not accurately reflect your family's ability to contribute. June 2 This is the priority deadline for autumn aid applicants to submit documents on their MyUCSC To Do List. Documents must be received in the UCSC Financial Aid and Scholarship Office by that date (or by the date indicated on the application) to be considered for all types of aid managed by UC Santa Cruz. Note: Graduates are not subject to this deadline, and only California residents are considered for institutional scholarship programs. July 1 - September 1 Students applying for financial aid and all items requested by the Financial Aid and Scholarship Office on their MyUCSC to-do list will receive an email when an official financial aid offer is ready for review on MyUCSC. Admitted students who accept their admission offer will receive an official offer of help after accepting their admission offer. Invoices for the autumn quarter at the end of August are posted. After accepting a help offer, you can use our payment estimator to estimate how much you'll need for the quarter. First-time borrowers must complete the passive effect of the loan and the entry advice for the loan they wish to take before the funds credit their student accounts. See the next important steps.
