Out on her fanny, she tries to be a cosmetic salesman, but when she shows up on the doorstep of maxwell sheffield manhattan home to sell makeup, she finds herself the nanny of her three children. The Primetime Emmy Award Winning series follows Queens-bred Fran, as her no-nonsense approach to life and her new concert capture the hearts of Maxwell's three children, and also Maxwell (Charles Shaughnessy) herself. The children soon begin to flourish under Pope Francis' care - Maggie (Nicholle Tom) changes from a difficult, shy teenager to a confident young woman, and Grace (Madeline Zima) no longer needs daily therapist visits. While the mischievous Brighton (Benjamin Salisbury) is convinced that he does not need a nanny, Pope Francis's down-to-earth and sharp attitude soon sees his love for her grow. While Fran manages the children, butler Niles (Daniel Davis) runs the Sheffield household. His quick wit and sass make him iconic throughout the series, and a valuable ally to Fran as she establishes herself as more family than help. As ridiculously funny as it is endearing, the nanny explores important themes of family, love and loyalty, while portraying the different attitudes and ideals across social classes in a subtle but intelligent way. Season 1Season 1Season 3Season 4Season 6A door-to-door cosmetics seller falls into a job as a wealthy family nanny. Brighton gets caught smoking on Fran hosts a community tea for debutant Maggie. Fran help to get Maggie a date backfires. Jealous of Fran, C.C. trying to court favor with Maxwell's children. Fran persuades the family to help her trick a noisy cousin. Fran accidentally kills Grace's imaginary friend. Fran spends her first Christmas with sheffields. Fran is enlisted to help land a soap opera star for Maxwell's musical. Fran argues with Maxwell's old nanny. Pope Francis' birthday present leads to a date with a handsome mortician. Fran and Maxwell argue over Grace's school competition. Chloe Simpson, a supermodel from the 1960s, enters ex-flame Maxwell's life, turning the Sheffield household upside down and disrupting the relationship between Fran and Maggie. Maxwell reveals he has a one standard when it comes to his children and the opposite sex. While he examines Grace for symptoms of the flu, the doctor takes a look at Francis' throat and immediately orders her to the hospital to have her tonsils removed. The entire Sheffield clan, including C.C. and Fran, are spending the weekend holiday at Francis' parents' house when a blizzard closes the airports and maroons them in Queens. Maxwell's sister Jocelyn gets engaged to Nigel, the Duke of Salisbury, but the wedding seems fateful after Fran discovers that Jocelyn is really in love with her driver, Lester. Grace and the son of prominent theatre critic Frank Bradley getting into a fight during a trip to the park And to break it up, Fran bops the boy with a baguette - which could mean curtains for Maxwell's latest Broadway play. Pope Francis's nightmare high school gym teacher has a new job as Maggie's instructor - and Fran goes back to school to help Maggie pass her gymnastics finale. When C.C is persuaded to invite her father to dinner, her demanding standards lead both Fran and Niles to have second thoughts about arranging the reunion. Fran is torn between his loyalty to sheffields and a suggestion from his ex-girlfriend. Problems arise when Fran and Grace take part in a mother and daughter beauty contest.
