It is located near the intersection of 610 Loop and U.S. Route 59 (Southwest Passage). [2] Suzanne Sutherland was principal since 2002 in 2004. From 2004 on 2010, Michael McDonough was principal . From December 2009 to July 2010, Amy Simson served as interim principal. Since 2011, Susan Monaghan was principal. Pin Oak Middle School, built in 2003 to facilitate nearby middle schools, is just an app school that accepts students on application. Anyone living in a Houston ISD can apply to the Foreign Languages magnet program, and students who are zoned for Meyerland Middle School of Performing and The Arts (formerly Johnston Middle School), Jane Long Middle School or Pershing Middle Schools can apply to Pin Oak Regular Program. [3] The 174,500-square-foot (16,210 m2) building is located on an 18-hectare (73,000 m2) campus. [4] Pin Oak Middle School has a foreign-language magnet program. The school was designated the National Blue Ribbon School in 2008. [5] [6] In 2010, the Bellaire Examiner stated that Pin Oak's innovative magnetic and Vanguard programs have qualified it with honours and far more applicants every year than it can accept. [7] In 2011, Krivin Isaiah Carey said Pin Oak will be seen as one of the best in hisd in learning and training.[...] [8] Pin Oak Middle School hosts the annual Pin Oak Idol competition, a spinoff of American Idol. Pin Oak is across the street from The West Loop Center of the Houston Community College System[9] and Challenge Early College High School (located inside HCC's West Loop Center), both located in the city of Houston (Glenmont Street is on the Houston-Bellaire border). (March 2009) (Learn how and when to delete this sample message) Pin Oak Middle School Pin Oak opened in August 2002. The Pin Oak campus was designed by PBK [1] and built for $US25 million. The school was paid for with a $678 million bond approved in 1998. Before Pin Oak was built, there were horse stables on campus; [2]. [10] The stables were removed before construction began. [citation required] The school got windy after the stables. Suzanne Sutherland was the first principal. [9] [11] Pin Oak 8. the teams in the class have won over $150,000 in prize money over the past six years through eCybermission [3]. In 2008, two teams were among the 30 semifinalists at the Christopher Columbus National Awards presented by Disney. One of the teams was a finalist, and he attended Disney with 5 other National finalists. In 2005, U.S. Secretary of Education Margaret Spellings and Texas Governor Rick Perry visited Pin Oak because Pin Oak took over 60 students displaced by Hurricane Katrina [4] [5]. In 2008, Pin Oak was named the National Blue Ribbon School,[12] and the TEA Exemplary School. [citation required] Pin Oak was awarded No Place for Hate by the Houston Anti-Defamation League in 2007-08 in the school's May international program. In November 2008, Pin Oak was awarded as a school for the Texas Business Education Coalition (TBEC). [citation required] In November 2011, HISD opened an internal investigation into allegations of financial embezzlement; thousands of dollars disappeared from the Operating and Student Fees Fund. The finance officer was suspended when the principal discovered the theft. [8] In 2015, Susan Monaghan, the previous Principal of Pin Oak, became principal of Westbury High School. [13] Design and architecture HISD wanted the architect to get the building to make a statement at 60 MPH because it was in the vicinity of the I-610. [14] The architect gave the school a curved façade to fulfill the request. The architect designed all sides of the campus because he didn't have a butt. The architect placed one entrance to the campus near the administrative district. [14] Admission students, ordinary and magnetic, apply to a magnet program or neighborhood school. Acceptance is determined by lottery for the neighborhood application process; magnetic approval is based on the student's academic history. [15] Neighbourhoods served several houston neighborhoods inside and outside the 610 Loop (and inside Beltway 8) are eligible for the Pin Oak regular program because they are in the Pershing, Meyerland Middle (Johnston) and/or Jane Long areas. [3] [16] [17] [18] They include Braeswood Place, Gulfton, Knollwood Village, Linkwood, Shenandoah,[19] most of Meyerland,[20] Marilyn Estates, Old Braeswood, Southgate, part Maplewood, Post Oak Manor, part Maplewood South, Sunset Terrace, parts of Upper Kirby, most of Westbury, Westridge, Westwood, Willowbend, Willow Meadows, Woodshire, Woodside, Flack Estates and parts of Sharpstown. [21] In addition, all residents of Bellaire, [22] Southside Place,[23] and West University Place can attend Pin Oak Middle School. Rice Village Apartments, rice university's graduate dormit house that accepts families, is zoned in Pershing, which in turn is one of the schools where pin oak is an option. Morningside Square, a former rice complex for families, was also zoned in Pershing. [25] House Systems Pin Oak Middle School is divided into three houses where students stay all their lives in Pin Oak; Each has five classrooms for Grade 6, five for Class 7 and five for Grade 8. [9] Magnetic students are placed in C House, while A&B House is filled with neighborhood students. All three houses offer pre-AP and advanced categories, although the C House is all pre-AP. [26] Languages Pin Oak is known for its wide range of foreign languages. All 7th and 8th graders could take a foreign language course if necessary. The languages are: Spanish, French, Italian, German and Mandarin. The 6th floor of C-house. students in the class take all in one year and choose their favorite language in the last 6 weeks. There is also a native class of Spanish speakers. Sports Pin Oak offers many sports programs, including football, football, basketball, baseball, softball, cheerleading, swimming and volleyball. The school also includes cross-country running and lacrosse. Clubs Pin Oak now has more than fifty clubs to choose from, including Duct Tape, Dodgeball, Arts and Crafts, Indoor-Outdoor, Movie Club, Jewelry, Student Council and more. Many of these clubs are superanastic; students go to their clubs on club days during school. School uniforms on Pin Oak are the school's uniform policy. Students are allowed to wear either plain white, royal blue or light grey polo shirts or Oxford shirts or monogrammed Pin Oak blue polo shirts. Students are allowed to wear navy blue, blue jeans, khaki or official school tartan pants. Blouses can be white, blue or gray. On Fridays, students are allowed to wear Charger Day Shirts or plain school uniform shirts. [27] Student union During the 2016-2017 school year, there were 1,208 students in Pin Oak.
