Zig ziglar's little book of big quotes pdf

Column by Michael Norton As you know, I am the former president of the Zig Ziglar Organization. And many of the life lessons I learned from Mr. Ziglar appeared in my writings and in my training and keynotes. Some of his quotes have found their way into this column over the last 10-plus years as well. Today, I thought I'd give you a little more background, and why this column always includes a little hope and encouragement. Recently I was invited to give a virtual talk about this. The subject is Zig Ziglar's Little Book of Big Quotes and the impact the information contained in the book has helped shape my past successes, how I still use the concept today, and how I plan to use Mr. Ziglar's hopes and encouragement to drive my future successes. Now when I say that it is a powerful little book of great quotes, I really mean a little. It is only 27 pages long and contains lasting wisdom and insight. The book has 104 excerpts on topics: Ambition, Attitude, Encouragement, Guidance, Happiness, Hope, Integrity/Character, Self-Image and Success. This is why I want to share this with you. The first quote in the book is: You can have everything in life that you want, if you're just going to help enough others get what they want. I heard Zig Ziglar say this from the stage hundreds of times, I've read it in his books, heard it on his audio programs and podcasts. This quote has been my north star, my compass, and the guiding principle that helped me in my decision making. It's not just a quote; it's my way of life. Here are some more of my favorites: Ambition: The most practical, beautiful, and workable philosophy in the world won't want to. Attitude: I have to say 'no' to the good, so I can say 'yes' to the best. Encouragement: Obstacles are the things we see when we take our eyes off our goals. Guidance: The task makes us do things well, but love makes us do it beautifully. Happiness: The main cause of failure and happiness is trading what we want most for what we want most for what we want now. Hope: The door to balanced success is wide open on the hinges of hope and encouragement. Integrity/Character: Ability can take you to the top, but it takes character to keep you there. Self-Image: Human beings are designed for achievement, engineered to succeed, and endowed with the seeds of greatness. Success: Success is one thing you can't pay for. You buy it on a installment plan and make a payment Day. I share nine with you here, there are 95 more that directly contribute to my success or have helped me overcome failed efforts or difficulties in my life. Zig's body of work includes more than 30 books, hundreds of hours of audio and video programs and podcasts. It is thought that he has been positive more than 250 million people worldwide. And that number continues to grow because of Mr. Ziglar's legacy. And my part of keeping that legacy alive is to keep writing about its teachings and share them with as many people as possible. There are three other ways I do this. The first is that I give this Little Book of Big Quotes to anyone who asks. So, if you want a copy of yours, let me know. The second way is I give a one-hour virtual keynote for your company or team, or if you want to know how training works, just send me an email on mnorton@tramazing.com. And we understand that we can really have everything in life that we want, if we're just going to help enough other people get what they want, it's really going to be a better week than a good week. For:_ have everything in life that you want, if you will just help enough others get what they want. 2. I am often asked what is my favorite quote or greeting. Frankly, there are hundreds of inspirations adagesthat help illustrate the extraordinary potential that each ofus has. I This Little Quotes book will inspire, encourage and motivate you, give you hope and sometimes smile. I believe you will find them insightful and in some ways, useful. I hope they make you think, give you new ideas, and extract more of its potential within you. I also hope that they will collectively reveal aphilosophy. In what basically the interpretation of the Golden Rule, it is my sincere belief that you can have everything in life that you want if you will just help enough others get what they want. See you upstairs, 3. Ambition 4. Your Business Ambitions are never really good or bad out there. Your business is good or bad right between your own two ears. The real opportunity for success is not the goal, it is the journey. The most practical, beautiful and workable philosophy in the world will not work - if you do not want to. Motivation is the fuel needed to keep the human engine running. Discipline yourself to do the things you need to, and the day will come when you went to do when you meed to do when you need to do the things you need to do the things you need to do when you need to do when you meed to do the things you need to do when you meed to do when you meed to do the things you need to do when you need to do when you meed to do when you want to do it! 1.5. What ambition you get by achieving your goals is hardly as important as what you will get by achieving your goals. Motivation keeps you going and habits get you there. Make motivation a habit and you'll get there faster and have fun on the go. The basic principle of achieving goals is to understand that you go as far as you can see, and when you get there you will always be able to look further. You are the only one who can use your abilities. It's an incredible responsibility. Ambition, driven by compassion, wisdom and integrity, is a powerful force for good that will change the wheels of the industry and open the door to opportunity for you and countless others. If we don't start, surely we can't make it. Obviously, there's little you can learn from doing nothing. 2 6. Attitude Positive thinking will allow you to use the skills, training, and experience you have. Positive thinking won't let you do anything but it will do you everything better than negative thinking will. We all need daily examinations from the neck up to avoid stinkin' thoughts that eventually lead to hardening attitudes. It's not what happens to you that determines how far you'll go in life; that's how you handle what happens to you can't adjust the situation in life, but you can adjust the attitude to fit the situation before it appears. 4 8. Attitude Of all the attitude of gratitude is the most important and by far the most important and by far the most life-changing. When you choose to be and positive in the way you treat others, you have also chosen, in many cases, how you will be treated by others. You can disagree without disagreeing. I have to say no to the good so I can say yes to the best. To respond positively, to react is negative. 5 9. Push 10. Drive Start your child's day with love and encouragement and end the day the same way. You already have every necessary to succeed if you recognize, claim, develop, and use it. You can't make it as common as hanging around. You have to be meaningful specific. The best way to raise positive children in a negative world is to have positive parents who love them unconditionally and serve as excellent role models. You'll make others bad, but you'll be the best you've got. You have to manage yourself before you can lead others. 7 11. Encouragement When someone we love is having a hard time and forgives us a bad time, it is better to explore the cause than criticize the action. Take some time to shut up. Obstacles are the things we see when we take our eyes off our goals. The best thing a parent can do for a child is to love his partner. You're the only one who can do it permanently. 8 12. Guidance 13. Guidance 15. Guidance If you are sincere, praise is effective. If you're not sincere, it's manipulative. Everyone says they want to be free. Take training off the track and it's free - but can't go anywhere. Many marriages would be better if husband and wife clearly understood that they were on the same side. The more you express gratitude for what you have the more you have to express gratitude. The kids go to places where there's excitement. They live where there is love. The task makes us do things well, but love makes us do it beautifully. 10 14. Guidance This is not the situation, but whether we react (negatively) or respond (positively) to an important situation. There's not much you can do about the national economy but there's a lot you can do about your personal economy. Lack of direction, not lack of time, is the problem. We all have twenty-four hours a day. You can finish school, and even make it easy – but you never finish your education, and it's rarely easy. The best way to make your spouse and children feel safe is not with a large deposit in a bank account, but with a small deposit of attention and affection in the love account. You have to before you can do, and do before you can have. 11 15. Guidance We all perform better and more willingly when we know why we are doing what we have been told or asked to do. Money will buy you a bed, but not a good night's sleep, a house but not a house, a companion but not a friend. Most x-rated films are advertised as adult entertainment, for adulthood, when in reality they are adolescent entertainment for immature and insecure people. You don't drown by falling in water; You only drown if you stay there. When you give a man a dole you deny his dignity, and when you deny his dignity you rob him of his destiny. Remember, you can earn more money, but when time is spent it is lost forever. Forever. 16. Happiness 17. My happiness is so optimistic I will go after Moby Dick on a rowboat and take tartar sauce with me. Most of us would be angry if we were accused of being ridiculous. But the word silly comes from the old English word selig, and its literal definition is to be blessed, happy, healthy and prosperous. The main cause of failure and happiness is trading what you want most for what you want now. Be helpful. When you see someone without a smile, give him you. 14 18. Hope 19. Wishing our children were our only hope for the future, but we are their only hope for their present and future. When you can raise positive children in a negative world. Failure is an event, not a person. Yesterday ended last night. There are rarely, if ever, desperate situations, but there are many people who lose hope in the face of some situations. You cannot solve the problem until you acknowledge that you have it and accept the responsibility to solve it. The character keeps you out of bed; commitment moves you to acknowledge that you have it and accept the responsibility to solve it. The character keeps you out of bed; commitment moves you to acknowledge that you have it and accept the responsibility to solve it. to balanced success is wide open on the hinges of hope and encouragement. 16 20. Integrity Character Integrity If living standard of living is almost always improved. If people like you they will listen to you, but if they believe you they will do business with you. Ability can take you to the top, but it takes character to keep you there. A person's quality of life is directly proportional to his commitment to excellence, regardless of his chosen field of business. Keep your thinking right and your business will be right. When a company or individual compromises once, whether it's on price or principle, the next compromise is right around the corner. 18 22. Integrity Character What you do from work is the deciding factor in how far you will go. You build a successful career, regardless of your field of business, by the dozens of little things you do inside and outside of work. When you use your freedom to express yourself at the lowest level, you end up condemning yourself to live at that level. With integrity you have nothing to fear, because you have nothing to hide. With integrity you will do the right thing, so you will have no guilt. With and guilt removed you are free to be and do your best. 19 23. Character Integrity When I discipline myself to eat properly, live morally, exercise regularly, grow mentally and spiritually, and do not include any drugs or alcohol in my body, I have given myself the freedom to be the best, do my best, and reap all the rewards that come with it. When we do more than we get paid Do it, eventually we'll get paid more for what we do. What comes out of your mind. You can get all the money you'll buy without licking your character, but you can't get anything that money won't buy — happiness, joy, peace of mind, winning relationships, etc., without character. 20 24. Self-Image 25. Self-Image 25. Self-Image If you don't like who you are or where you are, don't worry about it because you don't get caught up either with who you are or where you are, don't worry about it because you don't get caught up either with who you are or where you are. You can grow. You can be more than you. Some people find mistakes like there's a reward for it. Too many people don't know what they can do because all they say is what they can't do. They don't know what they can't do. They don't know what they can to be a winner you are born to be you must plan to win and prepare to win. Then and only then can you legitimately hope to win. As your images improve, your performance improves. 22 26. Self-Image The biggest single cause of bad self-image is the absence of unconditional love. It's not what you do with the abilities God gives you. Before you change your thinking, you have to change what goes into your mind. You are what goes into your mind. You are because of what goes into your mind. Don't be distracted by criticism. Remember – the only sense of success some people have is when they bite you. 23 27. Success 28. Success Too many people spend more time planning how to get a job than how to be productive and successful in that job. You increase your chances of success when you understand that the power of your longing is more important than the strength of your income. The price of success is much lower than the price of failure. When management and labor (employers and employees) both understand they are all on the same side, then each will be more prosperous. When we clearly understand that there is no superior race, we will open the door to communication and lay the foundation to build who won with everyone in our global world. The only way to the beach is downhill. 25 29. Success Remember there is plenty of space at the top - but not enough to sit down. Selling is basically a transference of feelings. If you're going to be pumping long enough, hard enough, sooner or later that effort will bring out the prize. You don't pay the price for success - you enjoy the benefits of success is the one thing you pay for. You buy it on the installment package and make payments every day. Ability is important in our quest for success, but dependency is essential. 26 30.
