The art world is constantly evolving, as today's artists interpret, question, and ultimately create a world around them. The 11th edition of Prebles' artistic shapes reflects this dynamic environment; it's one of the most exhausting revisions in the history of the book. This edition is driven by three recent trends: changing pedagogical needs, new scientific research, and the recent creativity of artists around the world. MyArtsLab is an integral part of the Prebles'Artforms program. Engaging activities and assessments provide a learning and learning system that helps students experience and interact with art. Key learning tools include ART 21 videos, Studio Technique videos, and our Closer Look art hallmark tours. Revel by Pearson is a new learning experience designed for the way today's students read, think and learn. Revel redesigns the well-known and respected content of the course and enriches it for today's students with new dynamic, rich media interactions and ratings. The result is better student engagement and better learning. Revel for Frank will be available for fall 2014 classes. Learn from author Patrick Frank about all the new features in Artforms, including new topics in the text: Teaching and Learning Experience This program will provide a better teaching and learning experience– for you and your students. To: Personalizes learning with MyArtsLab: The new MyArtsLab delivers proven results in helping students succeed, and provides engaging experiences that personalize learning. Provides a thematic survey: Help students explore the reasons for creating art, the motivation for each artist, and how art affects their audience. It emphasizes critical thinking: Chapter Opening-Thinking Ahead issues encourage students to focus and think critically about the issues to come. It focuses on art today: More than 175 new paintings reflect the author's view that contemporary art provides the best path to art appreciation because of its currency and global nature. It's a very rich book. The author, of course, has a lot of knowledge and is excited about his text. –Marsha Anderson, North Lake College [We Form Art and 'Art Forms Us' boxes] are such a critical tool in trying to illustrate the importance of art to those that are not the art of large companies. –Paul Benero, Tarrant County College Ideas such as catching part openers, a brief timeline and educational goals to help attract readers to decipher what they read about. The inclusion of the iconic work, along with the more obscure ones, helps students start in the comfort zone from which they will branch. –Joan Bontempo, Hagerstown Community College Content Plan for 9/11 –Timothy Jones, Oklahoma City Community College/University of Oklahoma Sample Chapter is available for download in PDF format.
