We may receive commissions for purchases made from the links we choose. An upper floor is an important part of any manicure. Not only do you get chiseled and dipping avoid your nails, but it also gives you a bright look. You can't often go without someone to paint your nails (and still according to the boom nail polish market, this is everyone). But not all of them are created equally so here is our list of the best floor for all kinds of manicures. Peek into any professional nail artist kit and most likely you will find a bottle of this cult favorite open polish. This should be a one-because it leaves nails with an ultra-bright, crystal clear finish and the color polish accelerates dry time. With just one floor, nail lacquer protects me-just-had-a-mani freshness throughout the day, without peeling, chipping or yellowing. If you're a loyal Essie fan, you'll love the brand's fast dry side fold. The formula adjusts light, bright, and fast. A sweep to each nail and good to go. Can you see what we're doing there? Anything with diamond powder sounds very expensive, doesn't it? But this upstairs contains luxury items and sells for less than the price of a morning latte. Why are you asking me about diamonds? They are known to be very hard and, of course, extremely bright. And these are the two features you want under your fingernails. Ultra-thin diamond powder made from diamond-formed powder sticks to your color solid, sticks, The nail is super shiny, powerful and chip resistant for up to a week. Diamonds are a girl's best friend, especially when they're so cheap. Sally Hansen usually takes pharmacy nail care right with on-trend, high-tech polishes and better performance products in the more expensive competitive way. This upper floor is an example. Just polishing doesn't protect the lahimi; feeds your nails at the same time. Formulate it with argan oil to moisturize and strengthen the fragile, weak nails. But don't worry, these clues don't feel greasy. The oil gets sealed into dry digits, and the color jacket takes a dose of bright brightness that lasts up to 10 days. Sometimes you feel high bright, sometimes you don't. That's what this Amazon Choice matte top floor is for. It instantly polishes even the brightest colored coats and leaves the nails with a velvety smooth finish. Use all the nails on it for a cool, textured look. Or, you can get creative with a matting jacket and like to get a modern one of the dull-traditional French manicures of shine along the edge. Another idea: Apply only one or two steps to the matte accent nail, leaving the rest shiny. Let's face it: Waiting for your nails to dry can be dragging. And if you're impatient like us, you almost always come across a stain because you can't sit long enough to let your polish harden completely. Fortunately, with this upstairs, you don't have to stay more than a minute. Seriously. As its name suggests, the upper floor dries nails to touch in just 45 seconds. Your polish is left with a high glossy surface that will not stain or spread when you start digging in your bag. We love gel manicures for their vibrant, high brightness color that will not move for up to two weeks. But taking them (usually with pure acetone) can be rough under your fingernails. Enter this innovative polish. This is a gel formula, but it does not require a special UV lamp to harden. And your polish comes out easy, just like traditional nail enamel. Use it on any normal polish and get a chip-free, high brightness mani (or pad) for a week for 10 days. While the entire upper floor is designed to avoid chipping to some extent, there are formulas that go the extra mile to keep the polish flaking your nails off. This clear fold contains a polymer technology that connects nails, protecting the dialect like an invisible shrink shawl. It continues smoothly, not gloppy, and then dries with a high bright finish, preventing peeling and flaking for days. Wonders go, with or without choosing to use the included basic coat, so you will really love this coat. This gives the nail a thick, super glossy finish and keeps them chipless throughout the day. Are you more worth the glitter than anything else? Revlon's top coat makes the nails look newly painted for about five days—plus, incredibly so it dries quickly.
