Most imports from the United States were either accidental, stolen, flooded, recovered and rebuilt and sent to Europe or subject to open recalls. CARFAX helps you identify hidden issues with used vehicles imported from the U.S. so you don't lose money. CARFAX has been collecting data on U.S. vehicles from thousands of sources for 30 years, helping millions of used car shoppers reduce the risk of getting stuck in a vehicle with expensive hidden problems. If you're interested in a used U.S. import, help protect yourself with CARFAX Europe's CARFAX Vehicle History Report, the official CARFAX website in Europe and the only legal resource for authentic CARFAX Vehicle History Reports. CARFAX is the most reliable source of vehicle history information about U.S. cars. For more than 30 years, CARFAX has helped millions of used car customers make better purchasing decisions and avoid expensive hidden problems. In addition, CARFAX has helped car dealers used worldwide to build trust with customers and safely sell American cars. With more than 14 billion records, CARFAX has created the database with the help of partners and resources, including government agencies, law enforcement, service and repair stores, auto dealerships, insurance companies, and many more. CARFAX's vision is to change the used car market for the better. As an independent resource that benefits both consumers and dealers, no U.S. used cars that do not investigate its history with the CARFAX Vehicle History Report should be purchased. Mileage return is one of the most occurring types of fraud in the sales process of used vehicles. However, there are ways to detect mileage fraud. While it is difficult to detect meter fraud for the uned eye, this is not an impossible task. CARFAX has compiled an infographic and a list of tips to help used car buyers prevent timer fraud. It has several advantages for buying an American used car. Depending on the model you are looking for, it is possible to save a lot of money from the purchase price. Also, due to the large size of the American market, there are more cars to choose from, and it is also possible to find models and makes it possible to find models that may not be available in your country. How important is a car's service history? What are the possible consequences of purchasing a vehicle that has not been passed on to proper care? CARFAX take a look at these questions and explains the importance of a car's service history and where you can find the full history of service records. Before I purchased my future car airbag and side airbags were 2 accident damages including a free total loss So, skip a lot of problems for €60. Bernd Meyer I had a brilliant idea to try to get a CARFAX report. For immediate paid by credit card and had the report within 10 minutes. Warning! Problem found: total lost report, scrap header/ certificate issued. The vehicle was imported from California to Lithuania. Peter Stoll CARFAX helped us not to get into trouble in 2017 and 2018 CARFAX also helped us be happy owners of our dream car. Babs for a few weeks is with us now and we have a lot of fun with the car. If it wasn't for the CARFAX Report, we'd be somewhere with a lawyer now in the middle of a legal dispute.
