It offers a revamped soundtrack, unlimited medals, unlimited resources, more vivid visuals, different flags and more. The latest version of the mod can be found here: Moddb.com Back in September 2016, I have a mod for World Conqueror 3 that changed different aesthetics of the game itself. This is an (unexpected) update of that mod that adds even more to the previous version, but also removes certain things that I felt didn't belong in the game itself. As before, this mod comes with the following: + Unlimited Medals + Unlimited HQ Resources (Not to be confused with in-game iron and oil. + Modified Generals (Removed historical figures like Roosevelt, but added more golden generals) + In-game flags are more detailed + In-game HUD is livelier + Specific infantry uniform changed (For countries like Spain) + Replace Brazil with Solano's Republic of Venezuela (Mercenaries 2) + Replace Cuba with Puerto Rico + The Russian Mafia is now back to Mongolia + Revised in-battle musical track, many added, some removed. Over 3 hours of musical tracks from various games such as Call of Duty, Medal of Honor, etc. + Title Screen theme was changed to Resistance 2's main theme + Ironed out a few extra minor details as for my reason to release an update to an old mod, all I can say is that I really love this game specifically. Even after the version of the previous version, I kept updating it for my own use to add more to it. It felt a little unfair to me personally that I got to keep a more polished version of the mod. So here it is, the absolute final version of which I intend to work. I don't expect any more updates from this mod neither for public nor private use. Extra Trivia: This mod actually started as an unlimited medal and resource mod I found online, but it was riddled with adware. I used 'Lucky Patcher' to remove all instances of ads on the application. On a clean installation, a single ad may appear once, but even then, no actual ads will interrupt whatsoever. It's after removing ads that I started adjusting the game until it finally took shape here seen today. Please note, I actually bought the game officially for getting the aforementioned mod. Please support EASYTECH as this would not be possible without them and this great game! With all that being said, I thank everyone who came here to download the mod, and everyone who enjoyed the previous version as well. Have a great day! PS: Ignore the tags to other games, they were a requirement for uploading
