I'm using the Sprungis Savings Bank application while i'm snowing for a while now, and can say that support is not here. The application is not the will for iPhone X, and I can also imagine what it would like to do. It needs to support it in an update for me and many people to be able to use this application properly. This application needs an update to do faster and look more presentable. I have this app 2 star rating, however if these suggestions are changed then this will be more than the Different 5 bank of a new type.
