Now you need to head to the swamp and you need to go to the small strap to reach the Zanaris. Keep in mind that your drumman or lunar staff must be equipped before entering the strap or unable to go to the Zanaris. To Perry's enough Grotto, just north of the bank. Go in, and you'll see a short cut. On the floor and next to one of the potion racks is a fairytale certificate enough that you need to pick up. Talk to The Perry Chef in the South Bank, he will tell you that he has seen similar inscriptions on a sign near the mysterious ruins, the ruins of the cosmic altar south of Zanaris, next to the entanglement zone. Inscriptions are located south of the altar on the wall next to a tree. Read the rune temple sign, now with this we can decipher the back of the certificate. The Godfather attacked us, the certificate said. we escaped safely . If you are loyal to Her Majesty, find us using air, DLR, DJQ, AJS coordinators. Open the fairy ring speaking to the fairy godfather in the Queen's Fairy Thrones room located next to the murderous master. Ask her what happened to the Queen, who is clearly starting to panic and rushing to say she will make a search party for her. Ask him both questions, and then agree that when you find the Queen, he'll let you back, Godfather. Use the fairy ring to find the queen. He wants you to talk to the coordinator outside the room to learn more about the rings. After speaking with the co-ordination and being informed of the extensive history of fairy rings and queens, head southwest to the fountains where you should see the fairy ring. Talk to Perry Fixit, and then, use the fairy ring while using Dramen staff. Congratulations you now have access to the Fairy Loop Network, if you attempt this only for the fairy ring you can stop here. Re-group by clicking on the Fairy Loop configuration, now we need to go to air (Islands: South Witchaven). To dial a fairy ring address you have to rotate the wheel on the letter you want to address, then click on Teleport to the destination. Sufficient certificates must be in your inventory for this. Then continue dialing the next DLR sequence, DJQ, and the last one is AJS (Islands: Penguins Near Miscellaneous, or Queen's Place). If you end up on an island with some penguins, you either mistakenly enter codes or you don't have enough certificates. It may also have given up decrypting the certificate message or simply lost a code in the sequence. I hope you have to be in the new Fairy Queen place just go up the track and go to the northeast room enough to talk to Perry, who, along with a very wise fairy, will let you know that the Queen is not good because the Godfather has hurt her by not bringing back her magical separatists. As his secret is drained, he cannot retaliate without obtaining secateurs, which you accept to restore. Go back to Zanaris and choose The Fairy Godfather, this requires level 40 thieves to be successfully finished. If you fail, you'll be camerad out of adultery. A quick way to get back to Zanaris is the Remote Sano Cemetery which will place you a few steps away from the Canifis Fairy Ring. Try pickpocketing from behind or sides, and make sure none of your heads are looking directly at you. You have to get a golden queen, and at this point, you'll see the orcs patrolling Zanaris. When you take the separator from The Godfather of Perry to the circles of perry go back to Queens' hideout using the same codes to return, just right-click the configuration and you'll see a small box that says travelogue on the right side of your screen. But this time when you click on the location it will automatically put the code for you. Treat the Queen with the perry enough and give her the separator, she will use them to rejuvene the Queen, but they don't work perfectly. Enough to tell you that she needs a special magic potion potion to fill the queen's lost life energy. To build potions, you need to collect some star flowers and gork claw powder. Return to the fairy ring and use the CKP code, which will transport you to a cosmic plane. Around for about two minutes while the star flowers grow. You can spend time contemplating the mysteries of the universe by speaking with the cosmic ones that live there. Pick a star flower when preparing, and add your harvest to the water vial. Gork's claws go back to Zanaris, resuring each armor and weapon with about 10 pieces of good food. The Goracs are very precise, so take the best melee armor you have in hand. They are aggressive, but fortunately, they are not located in a few combat zones, so you can only fight one in time. However, by remaining in the fairy ring, they will be aggressive until they are attacked. Also, gouraks are hit through prayers, so the prayer of protection has no effect. You can reduce your chances of hitting you by wearing top crush-resistant armor like chainmail. Use the DIR sequence to reach another plane full of goraks. You must have a certificate on your inventory for this! Kill them by eating food if necessary and drinking restore potions if needed until you claw gorks. To leave, equip your staff from choice and remoteness to Zanaris using the right-click option on the fairy ring. Chop the claws with pestle and mortar until the gork claw powder is obtained. Mix star flowers and gork claw powder in the vial of water to make our potion magical. Return to the resistance hideaway, use a dose of magic breath potions on the Queen, who finally regains her senses. As the Queen angrily prepares to return to Zanaris and take back her throne, Perry is very wise enough to remind her that the fairy godfather has thugs and orcs in her possession. His army is easily out of rank, compared to Her Majesty's small group of loyalists. The Queen noticed a flaw in the plan, and accepted the advice and allows fairy godfathers to remain ruler of Zanaris for time. 'Fairy Tale II - Treat the Queen' in the game window, when you click on the arrival of Quest Magazine, and in the Quest Magazine Control Panel. 'Fairy Tale Part II - The Queen's Treatment' at the Knowledge Base. If you use enough testimony on one of Zanaris's sheep, your character asks the sheep if he knows what strange markings mean, which the sheep will say: Man has found some symbols and he doesn't know what he means, so now he reciprocates me and ruins my routine! The same theme-ending theme called A Song That Never Ends, sung by a sheep puppet. If you use enough certificates on one of the cows in Zanaris, your character asks the cow if it knows what strange markings mean, the cow will tell it: Can't man make a mention? I've been. You! You think I'd ignore you if I wanted to discuss the essence of Rothch? This is a reference to The Ronchach Psychological Test. Godfather Fairy has a right-clicking option of pocket selection to replace Pickpocket like most other NPCs. If you're trying while you have a scrolling clue (which requires the Fairy Queen to give you puzzle boxes) in your inventory, when you go to Fairy Queen Magic Essence, she quickly gives you puzzle boxes for clues. When you talk to him after finishing the box, the original effort dialog starts up. Despite being in attackable, cosmps technically have an internal drop table. This drop table is mainly composed of secondary ingredients for potions made using Herblore and a non-standard Gisheh drop table that includes Grimm's Torstol, snapdragon, toadflax and rogue briefcase.
