I was getting a massage at a beautiful resort in Phuket and was shocked that i didn't play eastern sounds, or rather, it was a wonderfully soothing choice of European classical music. I thought, how ironic it is that in the West we play eastern sounds, while in the East they choose a Western soundtrack. Then I really decided to change it, but the next problem was finding the right mix because not all classical music is soothing... I'm sure it can be quite distracting to listen to the overture of 1812 while trying to breathe, well, I think it might be fun in some respects, but ier. How to find the right blend of soothing 60 or 90 minutes. Over the years, to return to meditation paths when searching ... Until this year! Finding a free streaming service that categorizes music to tone/feel the feel game changer. So, finding Classical for Sleep or Classical for Meditation has become my new set list. All this says, I think the music is very personal. It should be listed in the descriptions because it really provides a setting. Next time you book, feel free to ask! East, West, Classics, Ocean Waves and even Vacations! Read MattMasseur's Full Blog by MattMasseur Wilton Manors, FL Published by MattMasseur 7 hours ago Hello my adorable guys, When I don't do this in my spare time, im a mental nurse and came up with a project that can become a business and provide services based on customer needs. I worked as a doctor for 4 years almost 5 years and I need your help. I want to share that I want to open a company that is a medical and clinical base with an emphasis on adolescents and adults who are struggling with chemical dependence, behavioral problems, mental illness, criminal mentality, addiction, Anger Management, and eating disorders, co-occurring disorders. Here's the link below and share it with friends and acquaintances to help me start one of my dreams. If you give, wrong to give each person a 90 min massage and take whatever amount of donation as payment. gofund.me/323265d1 if you have any questions, let me know.
