Capabilities [Edit | Source Edit] They will explode into a flash of electricity that can harm the player if they are very close to it, but rarely fatal. They will follow a player's up lift by Tlputang, so there is no reliable way to avoid them. They will not teleport behind the player while the player is killing the other gymming jack, however, they will teleport directly in front of the player and start attacking. He has also been shown to be jumped off the walls to attack the player in a consistent and unpredictable manner. All the gyms are killed with Jack 100% accuracy by shooting at them and each bullet hit them, a random perc bottle will be given. Using ray gun, which does not fire normal bullets, contact random lying need not be made with the jack straining to get the perc bottle. Player (e) all of them don't have to be knifed.
