We are the breeders of champions of Scottish wrinkle kittens registered through the CFA and strictly adhere to their rules and regulations. We are based in the farming community of Latah, and Spokane Valley, WA. Our kittens are only available to pre-approved families who meet our personal criteria - For the last 15 years we have taken scotland's folding kitten to the area with the best reputation, because we stand behind our wrinkles and have many returning parents spreading the word. We believe that our responsibility for the welfare of the kitten should not end when we wave goodbye to the door. So a life of support and advice is always offered. Janice lives on a ranch with her husband and, in addition to growing Scottish wrinkles, she has 3 Tennessee Walker horses and 6 big children. She has 1 queen, which she breeds once a year. Marilyn just withdrew from the Sheriff's Department and enjoyed retirement-raising wrinkles and selling beads on the outskirts of E-bay at: Marilyn's Fringe and Trim. Marilyn and Amber each have 1 queen, which they breed once a year. Our kittens are pets of our family, We love to raise new kittens, so we have the best of both worlds. We are members of the International Scottish Fold Asso. Cfa. We breed for quality, not quantity; our goal is to produce cats that are not only unique and beautiful, but also happy. All our kittens are bred with a lot of love and attention. We have a closed kennel and all our kittens and cats have been tested for any disease and are always present in all their frames. Every kitten will have a health record before being placed and carefully inspected by our veterinarian, with whom we work closely to ensure that every kitten and adult in our kennel is healthy. When you first lay your eyes on the crease of Scotland, you can't help them fall in love. Our breeders our pets and very social, they sleep on the bed with us and follow us where we go. Scottish folds are a healthy, tough cat with life expectancy is approximately 15-18 years. They are a sweet character cat who is usually quietly expressed and likes to help oversee what happens to do. Their activity level is in the average range. Not every fold will be a lap cat, but you can usually find it close to you. They like to sleep flat on their backs and can often be found sitting on their haunches like otters. The Scottish fold will make a loving, tolerant pet and a faithful friend to his family - but especially for one special person who captures his heart and dedication. You will find after the scottish folds, your other cat will also be in the Scottish fold, because they are the sweetest cats. All our kittens have tight folded ears, where the ears fold firmly to the head. Scottish wrinkle kittens have a folded gene or they do not have it and are then classified as straight ear Scottish folds. THERE ARE NO ONES BETWEEN THEM. (If it's called one or double times, it's not a real Scottish wrinkle). If they have a folded gene, they have very small folded ears that sit flat on the head. The older they get closer to the ear sitting on the head. Wrinkles have round faces and round eyes. If they are slightly folded (double folded, they say), somewhere in their background, they have not been properly grown by an authorized friend, which means they are not a real Scottish wrinkle. Scottish times, times, can only be grown in straight ear times, American shorthair, or British shorthair. Straight ear folds have a normal size ear for regular kittens, but have all the features of Scottish bending (intellect, sitting on the hind legs to see something better, sitting in buddha position and lying flat on the back to sleep). All wrinkles have very soft coats. When it is very hot, they will slightly lift the ears to help cool their bodies, or when they are very upset. Welcome to Excatibur Folds We offer Scottish Wrinkles Kittens renton and seattle, WA We have a new site, this one will no longer be updated: are happy you are here. Here at the local kittens for sale our goal is to help connect all who are interested in getting a certain breed of cats with a reliable and reputable breeder in their area. Each country-specific country page of the breed has a complete list of all the local kennels and individual breeders that we could find in that state. We list the contact information that you can use, and also post a link to their website so that you can quickly see what kittens they currently have. All this information is provided so that you can explore each breeder individually and find the one where your perfect kitten is located! We always strongly recommend that you carefully check every cat breeder you would like to buy before making a final decision. With over 3,000 cat breeders listed on this site, we are the largest breeder directory on the internet! However, this means that we also rely on our visitors to inform us if any of the breeders we have listed is not a reputable and reliable breeder of cats. Scottish folding cats: The Scottish fold is a breed of domestic cats, which is often described as an owl. This is due to the natural genetic mutation that affects cartilage throughout the cat's body, especially as the ears bend forward. All the creases of Scotland can trace their ancestors back to the white barn cat from Scotland. Its unique appearance combined with an overly meilia personality has led to the fact that Scottish folds are a highly desirable cat and can cost significantly than other normal cat breeds. There is a lot of controversy around genetic mutation that causes folded ears. If the wrinkle is grown directly with another wrinkle, it significantly increases the risk of skeletal deformities.3 The best rated Amazon items for new Scottish wrinkle ownersScottish Fold Kittens sold by WashingtonOther Cat Breeds check: Javanese Munchkin Pixie-bob If you've never had scottish wrinkles before or would like to read more about these amazing cats, check out our Scottish folding cat breed information page.
