Mele kalikimaka chords in d

For music teachers, Christmas is just around the corner (you have to have time to learn the tune if you want to impress everyone this Christmas) and Conrad's Chords have been on request! Christmas for piano and ukulele. Mele Kalikimaka (Hawaiian Merry Christmas) is a brilliant ukulele song, and perfect if you're looking for a variety take on Christmas, which is really upbeat and goes with the swing. Here is arranged piano and ukulele with key options, although I think it goes best for the key D. Mele Kelikimaka piano and ukulele D Mele Kelikimaka piano and ukelele C And here just tune the line and ukulele chords. Mele Kelikimaka tune line and ukulele d Mele Kelikimaka tune line and ukulele C Tutorial video ukulele Strum this off-beat make a swing. I have it repeating once, but of course you can go around as many times as you want, and change it any way you want! The song was written in 1949 by Robert Alex Anderson, a Hawaiian-born composer who sounds quite character. There was even a film made of his feats of derring-do as a fighter pilot in the First World War. Anderson wrote the song after no one had doubted why there were no Hawaiian Christmas songs. I just learned on Wikipedia that Mele Kalikimaka is just how Merry Christmas comes out when you put it in Hawaiian. Bing Crosby recorded Mele Kalikimaka with The Andrew Sisters, which is a classic version. But I love love, love KT Tunstall sings it. What a phenomenal musician. I first found out about this song while doing a four-year stint with the Trójmasto every Christmas at a shopping mall in north-east London, welcoming Santa to his grotto. I also ended up singing it with him at a department store in central London in mid-July (above pic). He brings me the weirdest gigs.
