So we have created a detailed tutorial available here to guide you through the proper installation and configuration of the Fly GPS app on your Android device. In addition, there is a complete step-by-step guide to teach you how to fake/impersonate the location on Pokemon GO and control your Pokemon trainer with a joystick. Once your Android device has received a security update, you will no longer be able to use Fly GPS to impersonate your location. But there are a couple of solutions: Demote your Android version of phone/tablet to the previous version. Or, you can install Fly GPS on your phone as a system app. However, it is important to mention here that both gaps require you to root your device. This is a well-known issue with Fly GPS, which arose right after the release of the Android security update. The good thing is that we have a working solution here on our official Best Android forum. You can even discuss your opinion with other Fly GPS users there. ☺ Recently, Fly GPS seems to have some compatibility issues with the latest versions of Android Nougat including: Android 7.0, Android 7.1, Android 7.1.1, Android 7.1.2, and above. Many of our blog readers have had great success with the alternative impersonation app, i.e. fake GPS GO Joystick. You can download it here and see if it works for you. This usually happens when simulated locations that conflict with Pokemon GO are enabled. It can be easily solved, we have an easy-to-follow solution so as not to detect location error in Pokemon GO. The best possible way to avoid any possible gentle ban on Pokemon GO while using location hack is to use joystick controls wisely and slowly move your character because Niantic servers keep a constant track of your last location. Here's an example: in case you suddenly travel to your character using joystick from point A to point B in a couple of seconds, the same amount of distance that normally requires five to ten minutes to cover then your account will be gently banned. So I suggest you use location hacking apps wisely to protect your account from any kind of bans. In terms of Pokemon GO piracy, this number is known as 'rubber bands' where your Pokemon Pokemon trainer jump between your real location and the fake location by yourself. Few work fixes have already been discussed in our forum here. I hope this extensive piece of content has helped you with everything related to location impersonation using Fly GPS on Android phone and tablet devices. If, in any case, you still cannot find an appropriate answer to your question, please ask in the comments section below and our support team will help you in no time. ☺ Pokemon Go Hack Mod APK (Fake GPS/Anti-Ban) for Android Phones A game that combines reality and virtual play, this game still revolves around going out, discovering and capturing little Pokemon go – sometimes there are also giants – that you can find in real life locations. You'll travel to parks, buildings and other attractions to shoot PokéStop, earning a variety of items to help you earn more Pokémon, improve or evolve the Pokemon Go you currently have. Then, after choosing to join the Instinct (Yellow), Value (Red), or Mystic (Blue) faction, you'll fight your opponent's Pokémon in the surrounding gyms to take over those gyms and proudly display the color of your team's flag. Pokemon Go is a fiercely competitive Pokemon Go game that still has a fierce competitive element, but what makes this game special is the great community experience. Monthly community days offer diverse and engaging Pokémon to attract players out. Also, under certain weather conditions, you can also find Pokemon Go rare, so stay tuned for the Weather app! Meanwhile, raid battles with legendary Pokémon will require a collective effort to win directly, encouraging you to team up with other trainers to defeat (and hopefully catch) powerful monsters. This spirit of cooperation is also an essential part of the recently launched Friend system. You can exchange information with other coaches and spread love by sharing gifts obtained from PokéStop, improving engagement while playing. Once you're close enough, you can swap Pokémon so you can get the precious monsters you've been waiting for. If you're looking The goal is more difficult, besides simply conquering all the monsters when a new wave of monsters is launched, the new research missions will not disappoint you. These individual challenges set you the goal of conquering, whether it's catching a specific Pokémon in a certain number or mastering monster capture skills by making 3 consecutive 'big' throws. You'll have to persevere with special research missions, but don't be discouraged because the result couldn't be more incredible: a rare monster. Be more active! Pokemon Go is still a great excuse to go out and campaign, and you don't even need to constantly open the app to benefit. The new Adventure Sync option allows you to record the number of steps and inci shading Pokémon by linking to the Health app. This is also a way for you to approach your favorite monster: according to today, your Pokemon bow will also win candy, strengthening power for the next fight. All these advantages give everyone an easy-to-play game, but at the same time worthy reward for those who are rich in determination and skill. Pokemon Go gives you the freedom to play however you want, whether you're a new collector, a technical technician who loves numbers or an experienced warrior. If you haven't downloaded this game on time or want to re-export, now is the time to carry your phone and GO (go).
