Thank you for the subscription that I attended a meeting in one of Daddy's private dining rooms today where a celebration of life was held for my wife's sick brother. My wife and I decided the last time we ate her that it would be our last,... because of poor food quality, but today we had no choice. Well! Once again, the food was memorable for my taste. I ordered the steak, thinking it was a safe choice & my wife ordered the scratch cake. When I first tried to cut my steak I realized I wouldn't eat it. I couldn't get the knife getting through the fat and grill. not. My wife said the crab cake was extremely fishy and she couldn't eat it anymore. The green bean bean served was fresh but tasteless. Of course we didn't want to cause any type of disorder because of the reason for the meeting, so we just didn't eat. I'm convinced again that we won't return to Daddy's. More Daddy's. More
