Each bride thinks she has the best wedding, but what if four brides agree to be guests at each other's wedding decide which is the best? The series returned to a special two-hour episode back in January 2018. It is unclear how many episodes have been ordered. Here's more information as well video, from TLC: TLC's BELOVED SERIES FOUR WEDDINGS RETURNS All-New Season Premieres on July 21 at 9/8c with Two-Hour Episodes (New York, video, from TLC's beloved series FOUR WEDDING returns to All-New Season Premieres July 9/8c with two-hour episodes (New York, NY) - Over the years, viewers have seen what happens when four opinionated brides comment and rate each other's weddings, but things get personal this season at TLC's FOUR WEDDINGS, premiering Saturday, July 21, at 9/8c. In a whole new twist, featured brides are no strangers while they are close friends and/or family members - and the groom is teaming up with them to help pull off their magical day. In the series' new two-hour format, these blush brides, who are all at the same time, will appreciate each other's weddings based on six categories: location, food, dress, entertainment, originality and shared experience. The bride with the highest result will win all expenses paid for the honeymoon for herself and her husband. With such a big prize on the line, presenters are coming off as brides engage in some friendly competition and naturally try to each other in their quest to nab the top prize. Fans will be tagged along with brides as they plan to shop for every element of their wedding, including a dress, cake, decorations and more. From the village barn, winter wonderland extravaganza, twists and turns never before seen at four weddings, this season is full of hilarious, emotional and unforgettable moments that will captivate viewers during the last dance. TLC is the premier destination and reliable source of all things for the wedding, and our passionate fans continue to say I have our wedding content, said Howard Lee, President and CEO of TLC. We put this genre on the map with the signature long-running franchises like Say Yes to the Dress, and we're proud to bring back fan favorite Four Weddings, inviting the audience to fall in love again. At the premiere of the episode, fans will be introduced to four St. Louis brides with strong family ties. Far from the traditional, Maggie goes outdoors for a December wedding, while her soon-to-be sister-in-law, Ashley, goes full-on glitz and wedding glam. Family friend Lexi is stake it all on her celebrity chef's extravagant desserts and cousin Kat thinks it's not a wedding until everyone is on the dance floor! These brides are always too thick and thin for each other, but their relationship remains intact when they go head-to-head to win a honeymoon to a surprise destination? During the premiere episode of four weddings, fans can show which bride they are rooting for winning their dream honeymoon.
