Dipper Pines Welcome to Dipper's Guide to the Unexplained, Anomaly #42: The Tooth. (Points camera on Mabel, which is poking the tooth with a stick.) Mabel Pines I'm here for scale! Dipper I found it yesterday when I, uh... Practicing. Static, cut to Dipper playing a sousaphone. Dipper (Suddenly stops playing and points) Hey, is that a giant tooth? Static. Dipper Strange human, but it's gigantic! It's bigger than any fish or more monster I've ever seen. And we're going to find out where it came from! Statically, the camera is on Tate McGucket. Tate McGucket Tooth? No, I don't know anything about a tooth. Dipper We were thinking about paddling on that lake tonight. Tate McGucket Little friendly advice, boy: If you see bubbles on that lake, run. Dipper What, why? Tate McGucket Plenty of questions, get that camera out of here! Static. Dipper I'm here at the lake to investigate. I brought Mabel as a backup. Mabel and I brought Bear-O, my adorable childhood doll. (Keeps Bear-O up) Hey-oooh! Isn't that right, honey? (If Bear-O:) Did anyone say... Honey? (Normal voice:) Ha ha ha ha ha! Dipper Nope. Creepy. Bear-O is scary. Everybody hates Bear-O. Mabel (as Bear-O:) But Dipper, who can hate Bear-O? Dipper I can think of a few people. Static, cut to Mabel on a stage with Bear-O surrounded by children. Mabel (Sings) They are quite a couple, Mabel and Bear-O. Her on-bear-lying bear! Children (Crying.) Boy I hate Bear-O, Mama! I hate it! Cut. Mabel Aw, come on! You'll see! You, me and Bear-O are the adventure team of a lifetime! Static. Dipper and Mabel on the boat; boat; has left Mabel Bear-O behind, the camera zooms out to a disgruntled Mabel, rowing. Dipper Okay, something out there left that tooth, and we're going to find out what it is! Mabel (Holds a sign that reads: Want more BEAR-O?! LET YOUR VOICE BE HEARD WRITING: Mabel Pines, c/o Mystery Shack, Gravity Falls) Dipper No, no, come on! (Picks up the board.) Static. Mabel What should we be looking for? Dipper I don't know, watch out for bubbles in the water. Bubbles come close to an island. Mabel Dipper, look! Dipper They're at that island. We need to see what happens! The island shakes. Dipper What was that? Static. Mabel Ah! Dipper What's happening?! MABEL IT DOESN'T MATTER! Row! Row! Row! The island turns out to be a huge head that rises from the water and floats towards the boat, growling (backwards): You've disturbed my sleep. Feed my mouth, kids! ENTER YOUR DESTINY! Dipper (pants) Mabel AAH! AAAAHH! AAAH! Dipper It's getting closer! Mabel AAH! Dipper AH! KEEP ROWING! Static, the camera is on the ground. A crawfish crawls by and Dipper comes into view. Dipper I don't know, I've been looking - there it is. (pick up the camera) Okay, after it attacked us, that giant head thing sank back into the lake, and it lost another one of its teeth to eat our boat! But most importantly, we survived. Hardly. Mabel Ugh, yes. (If Bear-O:) Did anyone say bear-ly? Dipper AAAAHH! Static. Hidden page All six pages from Dipper's Guide to the Unexplained together. At the end of each short, there is a section of a page that is briefly flashed, revealing information such as symbols and cryptograms. The merged sections make one large symbol of an eye crossed with red X. This symbol is mentioned in a text about secret societies that Dipper researched, referring to the Blind Eye Society that appears in Society of the Blind Eye. Cryptograms In Candy Monster, the cryptogram says: IURP WKH ILUUV XQWLO WKH ODVW VHDUFK WKH. Once decrypted, it says: FROM THE FIRST TO THE LAST SEARCH. In Lefty, the cryptogram says: WKHP DOO ZHOFRPH WR JUDYLWB IDOOV. Once decoded, it says: THEY ARE ALL WELCOME AT GRAVITY FALLS. In Tooth, the cryptogram says FRGHV RI FUHGLWV SDVW RQH PHDQV RQH VR VHDUFK. Once decrypted, it READS, CODES OF CREDITS PAST ONE MEANS A SO SEARCH. If arranged correctly and read from left to right, the cryptograms read FROM THE FIRST TO THE LAST SEARCH THE CODES OF CREDITS PAST ONE means that one so find them all welcome when gravity falls. This is a hint on how to fix the codes in red. Codes in red There is a code used in the red numbers on each page. It can be translated using the number for a right brackets to indicate the Gravity Falls episode number and the numbers that follow to indicate the letter number of the episode decrypted credits cryptogram. Trivia There would be a short time in which Mabel visited the prison with the title Mabel's Guide to Smiles, in which she tries to cheer up some prisoners. But this eventually gets cut. [12] There would also be a short title, Mabel's Guide to Death, in which Mabel would show how to deal with the effects of someone or something that you know is dying after her caterpillar is eaten. This ended up being cut for being too morbid, however. See also References ↑ Littleton, Cynthia (August 23, 2013). "Gravity Falls' adds depth to Disney Channel Demo.
