The first prayer celebrates the wonder of God's creation and redemptive work, and the second reflects on how God fills our hearts with worship, peace and inspiration. Below there are also four exhilarating prayers of praise from the Bible, appropriate for reading at a church or gathering service, and a brief prayer of gratitude and praise, reminiscent of God's kindness and blessings:- Almighty God, You are the author of life. We are afraid of its creation. The vast oceans reflect your majesty. Ever-changing skies renew our lands. The deep valleys bring your peace and refuge. You're the savior of the world. We are surprised by your grace. Nations find peace in their forgiveness. The hope of the patient in your healing hands. The rest loaded on your promise of heaven. You're an unconditional love. We are privileged to be filled by their presence. Young people are full of their vision. The old are full of their wisdom. The oppressed are unleashed for their freedom. Almighty God, Father, Son and We adore you! Because you are the Lord of all creation, You make all things new. My soul is full of lasting peace When I close my eyes to sleep. Because you are sir, you are right next to me I am safe inside your house. My mind is full of inspiration When or eyes again. Because you are hope and spoken love, Your words are really full. My life is full of aspiration When I see through the tearing eyes. Because you are the Lord of the great and broken, I can be your hands and feet. (a contemporary prayer of praise of www.lords-prayer-words.com) God, you are my God! I can't get enough! I have worked so much hunger and thirst for God, traveling through dry and tired deserts. So here I am in the place of worship, open eyes, drinking in your strength and glory. In your generous love I am really living at last! My lips praise them as sources. I bless you every time I take a break; My arms wave like praise banners for you. (Psalm 63:1-4, The Message) click here for prayers of worship to God, including a modern call to worship. Good verses to read during worship as an exhortation to praise God:- Come, let's smoke the Lord! We cheerfully call the Rock of our salvation. Let's come to him with Thanksgiving. Let's sing psalms of praise to him. Psalm 95:1-2, (NLT) An inspiring prayer of praise with raised images and music:- Prayer of praise from King David Therefore David blessed the Lord before the entire assembly; and David said: You are blessed, Lord, the God of Israel our father, forever and forever. Yours, SIR, is greatness, power, glory, victory and majesty! For everything in heaven and on earth it's yours. Yours is the kingdom, SIR, and you are exalted as head above all. Both riches and honor come from you, and you rule above all; and in hand is power and power; and it is in your hand to make great, and give strength to all. Now, therefore, our God, we thank him, and praise his glorious name. 1 Chronicles 29:10-13, (NHEB) Psalms 92:1 It is a good thing to thank the Lord, and to sing praise to his name, Or Higher: Praise and Thanksgiving should be the lifestyle of all believers. Every laudable Christian is a cheerful Christian and every cheerful Christian will always carry God's presence around. The Bible tells us that in the presence of God there is full joy, Psalms 16:11. When we praise God, we command his attention. When we praise God, he enters our situations, when we praise God, we let him know that we trust him even in the midst of our judgments. Today I collected 30 prayers of praise and Thanksgiving. These praise prayer points will make the presence of God in our lives. Praising God means magnify God, and magnify God means God greater than our situations and circumstances. We must learn to praise God because of who he is, not for what he will do in our lives, but for who he is. In 2 Chronicles 20:20-24, we see the Israelites praising God in the midst of there battles, in facts 16:25, we see Paul and Silas praising God in chains. Praise should be our lifestyle regardless of the situations and circumstances we see ourselves in. Every time we praise God, we let him know that we still recognize his supremacy about our challenges. We let him know that we trust that he is still in control of our lives. These prayers of praise and Thanksgiving will lurch you in the realms of incessant praise in jesus' name. 1. Father, I praise you for who you are, you are a good and merciful Father 2. It may have been a while, but the Bible teaches us that it is good to raise prayers of praise to God. It is good to thank the Lord, for making praise to his name, O Most High. (Psalm 92:1) Apart from his gifts - which are plentiful - God is worthy of our praise simply for who he is. And it's good for us to recognize that. It's good to praise him when we're good. And it's good to praise him when we don't. It is good to raise praise prayers to the Lord! The Bible offers much guidance in lifting prayers of praise to God. So we spent some time together praying the Scriptures, offering the Lord a prayer of praise! 10 Prayers of praise to God 1.) Praise God that he is love (1 John 4:7-8), and that because of Jesus' sacrifice you know what love looks like (1 John 3:16). 2.) Praise God that he is the same yesterday and today and forever (Hebrews 13:8), and that he is his solid rock, his fortress, his rescuer, his shield, the strength of his salvation, and his place of safety (Psalm 18:2). 3.) Praise the Lord for being the eternal God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or tire; His understanding is insearchable (Isaiah 40:28). His manners are higher than his ways, and his thoughts higher than his thoughts (Isaiah 55:9). 4.) Praise the God during the way is perfect. Praise him that his Word proves true and that he is a shield for all those who take refuge in Him (Psalm 18:30). 5.) Praise God for his holiness. Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of the hosts; the whole earth is full of its glory! (Isaiah 6:3). 6.) Praise the Lord, who is like no other, forgive the iniquity and go over transgression. Praise him for his mercy - He does not retain his anger forever, because he revels in firm love. Praise him for his compassion and forgiveness. He will step on our iniquity under his foot. You will throw all our sins into the depths of the sea (Micah 7:18-19). 7.) Praise the Lord, a merciful and gracious God, slow to wrath, and abound in steadfast love and fidelity, maintaining steadfast love for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, but which in no way will clarify those 34:6-7) 8.) Praise God, whose power is like no other, and whose fidelity surrounds him. Praise him that justice and justice are the basis of his throne, and that firm love and fidelity go before him (Psalm 89:8,14). 9.) Praise God that with Him, nothing is impossible (Mark 10:27). Ah, Lord God! Behold, You have made heaven and earth for your great power and for your outstretched arm! Nothing is too difficult for you (Jeremiah 32:17). 10.) Offer this prayer of praise to the Lord, beckoning all creation to give him praise owed to his name: Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord from heaven;praise him at the heights! Praise him, all his angels;praise him, all his hosts! Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, everything that shines stars! Praise it, the highest sky, and waters above the sky! Praise the name of the Lord! Because he commanded and they were created. And he established them forever and forever; He gave a decree, and he's not going to die. Praise the Lord of the Earth, great sea creatures and all the deep, fire and hail, snow and fog, stormy wind fulfilling your word! Mountains and all the hills, fruit trees and all the cedares! Beasts and all cattle, creepy stuff and flying birds! Kings of the earth and all the peoples, princes and all the rulers of the earth! Young and maidens together, old men and children! Let them praise the name of the Lord, for his name is only exalted; Its majesty is above earth and heaven. He has raised a horn for his people, praise for all his saints, for the people of Israel who are close to Him. Praise the Lord! (Psalm 148) Dad, I thank you today for the gift of compliments. Thank you for revealing me through your word, for your spirit, and in your creation, you might be amazed at you. You're just worthy of praise and glory and honor, because you've created all the things, which in all things you could be pre-eminent. For every request I offer, every begging I cry, and every intercession I make, let me never neglect to do the compliments they owe you. On behalf of my Savior, Jesus Christ, I pray. Amen.
