Elaine B wrote a review Mar 2020Rochester, New York33 contributions9 useful votes To Nice Auditorium to see a show. We saw Shen Yun last weekend here. Parking was adequate but it's extra$. Security was quick. They have a bar in the lobby. The ladies' bathroom was downstairs. I don't think there are bad places in this theater. The sound was good. Excellent lighting. My only advice on their next update would be some sort of padded seats and more legroom. Sitting for 2 hours in those hardwood seats was uncomfortable. Otherwise, we enjoyed the show.... The volunteers made everything run smoothly even though so many people were coming in at the same time. Totally recommended to purchase the parking pass when buying tickets for a show, it made it much easier.... Experience date: January 2020Bill wrote a review January 20201 contributionExcellent!! The theatre was great. The show was to behold. No bad places. It's worth it. I would recommend it to everyone. Experience date: January 2020Greg W wrote a review Nov 2019Smiths Station, AL19 contributions4 useful votesExcellent Theatre with questionable parking. The theater itself is quite charming and well laid out. Not really a bad place in the house. The theatre staff were all friendly and quite helpful. Parking for the theater, however, was a different story. There are several paid parking spaces in the surrounding area and the one where we ended up in cars packed like sardines. There was no way out until each layer discarded. I didn't realize it. Watch out for this if you leave. ... Experience date: February 2019buhbuh wrote an October 2019Grand Island2 contributionsWe had a change in plans because our hotel screwed up and had to take my service dog to training for a show, the staff were AMAZING! Everyone was welcoming and helpful, they even moved us to seats.so and my service dog had more space! All were educated available, they really made us feel very welcome and that we were not a nuisance at all! I would make an hour and a half trip again just because of the service!... It's a beautiful theater and structure inside, with all the high vaulted ceilings and frescoes carved into the wall and ceiling paintings. (Although we couldn't see the squirrels supposedly carved in woodworking. The sounds and lighting are also very good at the theater. This is a wonderful place for a show or production process.... Brit Floyd was all I hoped it would be. A nice mix of newer and older pink floyd songs well done. A wide range of seats is available. The only complaint is that I wish there were more women's bathroom stalls as during intermission, there is a huge weight to get in. Volunteers who sit down and scan tickets are friendly. The variety of shows they offer is wide. I generally go 1-2 times a year for shows and have never been disappointed.... Business date: December 2016Larry W wrote a review point. 2016Rochester, New York21,621 contributions1,296 useful entriesThis is an old-fashioned theater that's probably known better days but it's still nice to be in a city of this size. It has plenty of beautiful old-fashioned artwork frescoed on the wall, tall balconies and flooring corridors often produced. Children find performing (dance considerations) in this place because of its age and grace. Attention: food and drinks are very expensive in the bar. Parking is also available in the backyard, but forgets $5.00 for the cost.... Attention, I'm not sure calling the box office would have a different result, but: WARNING! Experience date: April 2019Re response from AUDRBTL, Guest Relations Manager at RBTL's Auditorium TheatreReposed on June 11, 2019This note notes that Ticketmaster.com and The Auditorium Theatre Box Office are the only official and authorized ticket sellers of RBTL Auditorium Theatre events in Rochester. Tickets purchased from other sources may be more expensive, invalid, or ineligible for service. Ticketmaster's online rates typically range from $10 to $14 per ticket, and there are no additional service fees when buying in person at the box office. We hope you enjoyed your performance despite the fees you paid through your ticketing site and hope you will return to the Auditorium in the future. Ann Marie K wrote a review February 2019Buffalo, New York168 contributions31 useful votesI recently visited this theater to see the musical carole king. The show was great.
