Once i seven years old lyrics

7 years of lyrics-Luke Graham Lyrics once I was 7 years old – Luke Graham Once I was seven years old, my mom told me. Go make yourself a few friends or you will be lonely. When I was seven years old It was a big big world, but we thought we were bigger pushing each other up the boundaries, we were learning faster eleven smoking grass and drinking burning alcoholic beverages never rich that we were out to have a steady number when I was eleven years old. My dad told me, Go get your wife or you'll be lonely. When I was eleven years old I always had that dream of getting my dad before me so I started writing songs. I started writing stories something about that fame, just always seemed to bore me because the only ones I really love ever really know me when I was twenty years old. My story was told before the morning sun, when life was lonely When I was twenty years old. I see only my goals, do not believe in failure Because I know the smallest voices. They can make it a major I got my boys with me at the benefit of those and if we can't meet before we leave, I hope I'll see you later when I was twenty years old. My story got told I was writing about everything I looked at before me When I was twenty years old Soon we were thirty years old, our songs were sold We traveled the world and we were still roaming soon we were thirty years old I was still learning about the life my woman brought to children for me so I could sing them all my songs and I can tell them the stories most of my boys are with me Some are still out seeking fame And some I had to leave my brother I still apologize Soon I'm sixty years old. my dad got sixty one save life and then your life gets better I made a man so happy when I wrote an email when I hope my kids come and visit once or twice a month Soon I will be sixty years old , Do I think the world is cold Do I have many children who can heat me up? Soon I will be sixty years old Soon I will be sixty years old, Do I think the world is cold Will I have many children who can warm me up? Soon I would be sixty years old, when I was seven years old, my mother told me, Go make friends or you'll be lonely. When I was seven years old When I was seven years old do you like this song?
