How: You must be born a reborn believer, full of the Holy Spirit.Must be saved by demonic spirits, need to have a prayer life and a relationship with God.it is necessary to perceive wisdom and knowledge. You should know about warfare. You should know how to drive out the devils. Should walk in love. When touching your chest your hands should be closer to the neck area of the chest.men should use a woman's hands for contact when they put their hands and women should use a man. Men should refrain from running their hands over women's bodies and women's visas opposite men. If he catches women, if you're a man, it should be two. The men either lock their hands or grab each other's hands behind the woman's upper body to grab the hand of the woman and guide her down. Never grab under his armpits by touching his chest area. Never grab him around his lower body, close to his intimate parts. Don't stand right behind him when most women bend over or back when they glorify God and often he's back behind the person. Women only deal with men when there's no man to help. Don't stand right down because I've seen a lot of getting physically hurt. Be careful never to deal with those who can't cope on their own. I've seen people pulled from the muscles back from injuries to black eyes with broken noses with broken lips with broken bones trying to deal with wild people. Hygiene is a relief for altar workers. Having body odors and bad breath is a sure way to bring people out of worship and distraction causing them to lose a move to God.This is not the time to start their miniature prayer lines trying to build a platform. Follow protocol. This is not an opportunity to start flexing your mental muscles. When you pray for people, lying on top of them is no. Now is not the time to have a secret molestation tactic for someone. Never touch or start praying for anyone when the preacher is dealing with them. When a preacher speaks and prophecies, it is not your position to start putting your hands on it unless you are authorised to do so, or that you bathe in your ear, drowning the preacher. Be vigilant at the altar, now is not the time to distract or distract attention. Pay attention. If you have one that involves people you need to be mindful, so you have a guard to cover those male/female that can show your goods. You can't work at the altar to forgive hate hatred for jealousy and things in your heart against people. Please dress appropriately for the work of the altar. No chest out. No mindress. No tight pants. No furry chest out. No splitting the thighs in half. They're distractions and seducing clothing. Stay prayerful all the time. This is time to engage in unnecessary conversations with others to be fun and playing. Don't take your mobile phone with you to work at the altar. Now is not the time to answer a personal call. These are just a few things, but the altar staff class is definitely necessary because people do a lot at these altars.- The Apostle Barbara R. ThomasApostle Barbara R.
