Kara sevda amor eterno capitulo final

By: Fich Press Finals After 227 episodes have aired, Kara Sevda's Turkish novel (Eternal Love in Spanish) ends and has unexpected results by her followers. In the progress of the final chapter, the Emir is seen planning to eventually bring down Kemal. To achieve this, he comes without a better idea than to kidnap Niham and take her to a dangerous place, how far her rivals have to go to save her. But no one expects this result. What happened at the kara sevda end? The Emir is ready to execute his revenge and when he foresees, Kemal goes to a meeting to save his lover. After ordering him to get to Niham, he decides to leave, indicating that he prefers his freedom. In the distance, Kemal watches his love, tied to his feet and hands, on a rock with dynamite. No matter what might happen to her, she decides to go and reach it, but she asks him not to because it is a very dangerous place. Despite the warning, she began telling him that she loved him and followed his path, but before he got there, he stepped on one of the artifacts, making it no further because everything would explode. Kemal can't move because he stepped on the mine. (Photo: Star TV) At that point the Emir appeared and, because he had memorized the plane where the mine was, he went to niham's place and let go. At that point they realized the scam, because the bomb next to the woman was fake and everything was a plan. After he released it, he told her to follow in his footsteps to get out of the minefield, but he refused. At Kemal's request, which reminded him that they had a daughter together, he agreed. After walking on a small stretch, he managed to get away from the Emir who in his attempt to catch him, also stepped on another mine. Police and special officers arrived at the scene to defuse the bomb, but when examining the area they realized that Kemal's artifacts were the most dangerous and they decided to only help the Emir. The tragic end of the novel stunned more than one. (Photo: Star TV) In a heroic act, Kemal manages to grab his opponent's arm and tell him that they are both going to die, and that will be the only way for him to leave Niham alone. After asking everyone to go and say goodbye to the love of their lives, he lifted his legs causing both to die. Four years passed and Nihan was seen caring for his little girl. One night he met his loved ones and after sitting at the table he remembered the man who shared eternal love. What does that mean? The end of the novel means that true love lasts forever, beyond life. And although loved ones no longer exist, it will always be in their minds, hearts and being their partner.
