We start with prayer and then classes all day. There is an hour devoted to community time, allowing students and teachers to reflect and gather together for fair announcements. A presidential assistant in Villanova, PAThis is a private school with very little room to move up. The people are friendly and very nice. Most of the staff really care about students, but it's located on the main track and in a very affluent area, so it can sometimes be difficult in Health and PE teacher/coach Villanova, PAWorked ND for 31 years For the first 20 years I taught health and exercise, coached three sports and was a sports director. For the past 11 years in my teaching career, I returned to teaching and coaching, an active member of the school community who did everything from nursing service, running fire drills and setting up gatherings. It was really a community where we supported and encouraged each other. In the last six, it's become a business. It's lost its heart. I retired.
