Chicago daily law bulletin jobs

There are no posts currently published in this category. The Chicago Daily Law Bulletin recently presented a front-page story on Recorder Karen Yarbrough's Public Act 98-0099 (HB 2832). Key excerpts from House Bills 2832 and 2905 establish an expedited review process for fraudulent liens and make it a Class 4 crime to consciously file one, respectively. The bills were initiatives by Cook County Recorder Karen Yarbrough, and officials at that office meet Wednesday with the city's Justice Department in hopes of providing details on how the new policies can best be implemented.
