Conveniently located on Interstate 70 east of downtown Kansas City, Grain Valley provides residents with easy access to shopping, dining, and entertainment, yet, maintaining the charm and friendliness of a small community. That's why we're one of Missouri's fastest growing communities! In March 2015, the Kansas City Business Journal projected reported population growth as one of the fastest growing area cities in grain valley by 2014-2019. Part of our success is credited to great schools, parks, and neighborhoods, with fewer crime, new infrastructure, and a wide variety of housing options. From youth sports leagues to special activities for seniors, Grain Valley offers enjoyment for all ages. A park, pool, and community center, with baseball, softball, football, and football fields, give young and old alike the opportunity to stay active. In addition, Grain Valley's low crime rate makes the community a safer place to call home. Real estate blog Movoto recently named Grain Valley as Missouri's sixth safest city, based on FBI crime data. In terms of housing options, Grain Valley consistently ranks among the top tiers of metropolitan suburbs by providing homes priced from $50,000 to $350,000, assuring opportunities for nearly every budget. Because the majority of community neighborhoods were built within the past 15 years, the modern infrastructure of grain valley for water, sewer, stormwater, and transportation are building to high standards. As one of Missouri's fastest growing school districts, Grain Valley School worked tirelessly to create its motto. I Every student, every day! Come to life. An early childhood special education center, serving 4,100 students in four elementary schools, two middle schools, and a high school, Grain Valley is proud to offer smaller class sizes, while at the same time offering big school academics and activities. The district has doubled in size since 20 and continues to focus on a small school feel as its mission to serve all students. In May 2015, The Washington Post named the Green Valley School District. The most challenging U.S. high school. Grain Valley High School is ranked in the top five percent of public high schools in the United States, fifth in Missouri State, and number one among Missouri schools in the Kansas City subway. Grain Valley Schools is really a great place for kids to learn and work for adults. Great schools, parks, affordable housing, available sites, and a ready workforce create a community focused on providing high quality of life to grain valley. 2019 State of the City City
