Challenge #4 Hot New Top Max Amit 22 days ago Answer You can no longer Anonymous Damage that we can not hear NATOOSHIMI WA KORE KARA DA for challenge #4 lol Anonymous Reply lol Anonymous Reply lol Anonymous Reply lol Anonymous, I think Konami has done a good job of paying attention to card descriptions so as not to miss the timing. The monster X-saber Synchro clearly says when instead of if lenovogreeceg770 obelisk is here ... now slifer and ra mat remains Anonymous gameA why does this page, it only clutters the page with useless information. Anonymously agree with this. It's not like they're going to repeat all these old puzzles anyway, because they've never been repeated until now. Anonymous Duel Links is a game used for espionage by the CIA and the Pentagon, after World War II, Japan became a puddle of American pets, since then they have been creating technology to spy, manipulate, idiot and make their enemies (people who tell the truth) look like terrorists, when there are little boys who play the game produced by the CIA and think it is a genius because their parents who also indirectly work to support THE CIA plans support him, there are children in other parts of the world who can not buy food, all this is a manipulation program created by Israeli Jews in partnership with the people who command the United States, and the European and Japanese aristocracy, they always manipulate with news like the Corona virus to denigrate the image of China, terrorism to get their dirty hands on the people of the Middle East, protests in Hong Kong, so they control the government of China, manipulate the chinese people against the CCP party, all this criminal organization that meets every year at the biuldberg club to decide what will be the next game as a duel links that will manipulate stupid children around the world, that's the reality you want, useful idiot accept it or not, you're just a puppet in an international political war Anonymous Reply Isn't an old copypasta of like, 2018 lol 'lol' Anonymous Reply And yes, it's an Anonymous troll September 2020 Challenge #3 needs clarification. Step 3 should state: When the opponent activates the trap hole in the flood gate, follow up the urgent adjustment... instead of just, Activate Urgent Tuning... There's a long time between the two. Anonymous Anonymous Anonymous Anonymous Anonymous Reply Well, they're back to easy puzzles with the X-Saber so it looks like the second one was the hardest this time. Anonymous Anonymous Anonymous Reply And Legend/KoG ranks as if you claim to have more skills than us in this game This proves once again that to reach KoG or above, you only need money, no skills. Anonymous Ano S/T zone after it is destroyed. 2. Activate the effect of the crystall Beacon, Do NOT use the Pegasus 4 effect. Attack with the 3 Monsters Anonymous (Challenge #5) Anonymous The guy who posted the following message: Konami is a mafia and This guy is angry because Magic the Gathering Arena died after 5 months, (probably the biggest flop of 2019) What a huge life lesson, this mafia used to post p0rnography all over Game A. What a sad day for the UK, the British should get rid of this pack of gangsters. All the info in this picture: this guy is just trying to discredit his own crimes. The perfect example of a pitiful man. Anonymous Reply What do you babling about? MtG Arena is still going strong. They even regularly celebrate tournaments with real money as prizes. I agree people who make outrageous claims against DL are do c h e s, but that's no reason to cast a shadow at MtG Arena either. slasher00x Im I the only one who can not check on the side deck or cemetery in duel is it part of the challenge? Anonymous 4 days ago Answer if you play the game regularly for at least a year, even as a PURE F2P, you can easily build 2-3 expensive decks listed above. GEM management, as ALWAYS. I proved it. Anonymous 4 days ago Reply F2p for 2 years and I have over 10 bridges with me. Some people just spend all the gems on the garbage packets and then start complaining about everything. Anonymous 4 days ago Answer Ah, the struggles of f2p. That's why Saved f2p gems for all staples, but I don't have a deck to play them. In addition, it is useless on Turn 1. Infinite Ray 14days guys said last box was bad, but at least two bridges are you talking about? Noble Knight was already meta before this poor boy box 15 days ago Why is this list so different from DuelLinksMeta? How do you classify decks? Anonymous (poor boy) Anonymous (poor boy) YEET 15 days ago Answer There are NOTES it is said that the GameA level list is mainly based on king of games decks submitted by users. Anonymous 15 days ago Answer And that, in my opinion, makes this list of levels more reliable Anonymous there are 14days Awesome Answer anyway, this means that many bridges are very, very competitive duel pro links The gamea level list actually follows the scale and format of dual links where duel links meta tier list is just the best of the 3 formats gamea wins here, we need the kc cup and the worlds level list actually no reason for a tierlist scale because you can reach kog with basicially any deck and this whole format is not competitive. Anonymous (Duel pro links) Anonymous response yes, the problem with the DLM level list is that it is determined by their own tournament, hence why the level list often changes because it is based on which deck just happens to win the tournament at the time, instead of what is actually meta in Duel Links. Anonymous response A tierlist is only useful for competitive
