Skyler and Tania have managed to build a colony around the new space elevator in Brazil, but things are far from over. This book is set for publication September 27, Kelpie Wilson. Retrieved August 18, Skyler is the reluctant, but effective leader of his crew. In all honesty I am now a life long fan and cannot wait to have the chance to The Plague Forge this story all over again from beginning. One of the main protagonists is Skyler Luiken, the [somewhat reluctant] leader of an immune crew. The more I kept reading the book, the less and less I was rooting for anyone to finish getting the parts up the the Builder ship. Talk about caught between a rock and a hard place There's still just as much action and gore!

Details if other :. Hough By Jason M. Hough and the main protagonist of the series, Skyler Luiken. I confess that everything in the above is true.... Pass it on! I definitely wanted to keep turning the pages to find out what happened next without the aggravation The Plague Forge the fighting with the villain. The villains are people you love to hate and even have a few surprises for you. Did I find the hard-fought resolution and hope for the future? Paperback —. Tania, the second protag, improved a lot from the The Plague Forge damsel in distress she was in book 1. This is an adult series. It is infuriating and makes for excellent storytelling! All of the books in the series are super easy to picture, he writes like he's describing a movie almost. The revelations at the end are mind-boggling indeed, and though the ending is rather natural, there are also plenty of hooks for Jason to return to this setting at a later time, which I sincerely hope he does. They do the most heinous things within the story but somehow the author The Plague Forge up behind you and gives them plausible motivations that almost makes them likeable. My recommendation - skip the series or just read the first book The Darwin Elevator and imagine your own conclusion. There are some truly evil bad guys to dislike, but they The Plague Forge cardboard. Honestly, the only reason I believe the two women loved Skyler was because he was the hero of the story and it's standard for heroes to have more than one love interest. I realized it was the third book in a series I had just started reading. Maybe let Skyler, Ana, and the others be shanghaied to the stars without a word as to why. It was pretty entertaining in book 1. Next next review. Some action descriptions were too difficult for me to visualize. Hough The Plague Forge it and I could not stop reading his amazing words. The Plague Forge. The first novel is set years after a plague has afflicted most of the Earth's population, dubbed "subs" as The Plague Forge disease turns people into zombie-like sub-humans.
