Every donation supports our cause in the care of orphaned children around the world. Really great kids' book about a little girl who is so wild she gets put in time out and must defend herself. The illustrations If I Were a Lion this story—minus those of the little girl for some reason—are the best part. She spends her punishment explaining that If I Were a Lion is not wild only her animals. I didn't care for the illustrations particularly those of the girl--she's reminiscent of Gollum in the Lord of the Rings moviesor the story the girl protests against her mother's calling her wild by comparing herself to what she knows about wild animals while sitting in time-out.
