This project started two years ago as a final exam project for the Utrecht School of the Arts. Since then, with the support of different organizations and companies. The project has grown significantly to the point where it has become a professional production. After Heavenly Highs: Ayahuasca different shooting periods we had 40 hours of very valuable footage which had to be reduced to 50 minute feature.

Unfortunately during the process many interesting Heavenly Highs: Ayahuasca had to be cut out. What made it into the movie was the treatment in Mexico, Kava-Kava initiation in Gabon, and interviews with several people. It is now in distribution for broadcast by our distributor SHK and the sales of the DVD on our website have started as well. There were too many people involved in the project to thank them DMT and Other Plants of the Gods here.

However we would like to thank the crew for doing such a great job. Also special thanks to Howard Lotsof for his work with Ibogaine and his sincere dedication to this project. Categories: Drugs. Description Details.
