

POKEMON: LETS GO, PIKACHU! & POKEMON: LETS GO, EEVEE! : OFFICIAL TRAINERS GUIDE & POKEDEX PDF, EPUB, EBOOK

Here is the complete Pokemon Let's Go Eevee! Candy Guide. Pokemon: Let's Go, Pikachu! Wiki Guide. Last Edited: 2 Mar am. Page Tools
Page is locked. Click on a section below to get started. More Wiki Sections. Was this guide helpful? YES NO. In This Wiki Guide. Franchises:
Pokemon. Genres: RPG. Platforms: Nintendo Switch. Developers: Game Freak. Viridian City has a Gym; however, it is locked. After his defeat, journeying along Route 3 and through Mt. Moon brings the player face to face with the regional villainous team, Team Rocket, who are attempting to extract rare Fossils from the cave. Their defeat allows the player to continue through the cave and obtain the Dome Fossil or Helix Fossil which can be regenerated into Kabuto and Omanyte.

Before the player leaves the cave, he is ambushed by two Team Rocket grunts, Jessie and James, who try to take the fossil back. Continuing onto Route 4, the player finds himself in Cerulean City, where another Gym is. To the north, as well, there are two routes leading up to Bill's Sea Cottage. On the way, the player is confronted with a trainer who tries to persuade him to join Team Rocket. Ticket for the S. Anne, a luxury ship moored in Vermilion Harbor and filled with Trainers. Taking a shortcut through a house burglarized by Team Rocket, the player finally arrives at Route 5. After traveling down Routes 5 and 6, using the Underground Path to bypass Saffron City, the player finally arrives in Vermilion City.
The only thing to do is to show the ticket to the Sailor guarding the harbor, allowing entry into the S. It is here, after assisting the captain with his seasickness, that the player will obtain the Secret Technique Chop Down. With this, the tree blocking the way to Vermilion Gym can be easily chopped down, and Lt.

Surge, a Gym Leader specializing in Electric types, can be challenged. The player takes a brief detour to Pewter City's museum's back entrance which was previously blocked due to a Cut-able tree, which can now easily be bypassed. The player obtains the Old Amber in the museum.
Heading back to Diglett's Cave, and to Vermilion, the player must go to Cerulean and to the east, onto Route 9 and towards the Rock Tunnel.
Rock Tunnel, a still undeveloped natural tunnel between the sections of Route 10, is pitch black inside; for this reason, the Secret Technique Light Up is recommended, but not required, for navigation of it. From here, Route 8 leads to Saffron City, but it again must be bypassed by way of another Underground Path, which has its other entrance on Route 7, on the west side of Saffron.

Like the Vermilion Gym, the Celadon Gym also has a small tree blocking the way to its entrance, and an old man outside. The Rocket Game Corner in Celadon is not what it appears to be. In fact, the Game Corner itself is merely the above-ground portion of a sprawling underground complex: the Team Rocket Hideout. The player runs into Jessie and James for a second time and then meets the Team Rocket boss, Giovanni, who gives the player a Silph Scope after being defeated. In front of the stairs to the final floor, blocking the way, is also a final spirit, that of a deceased Marowak that was killed by Team Rocket when they captured her child. Making it all the way to the top reveals Mr. Fuji, who is attacked by Jessie and James. Now the player is presented with a choice of how to get to Fuchsia City. Traveling down either way the Snorlax are blocking, a faster way via Routes 16, 17, and 18 on Kanto Route 17, or down the Routes 12, 13, 14, and 15, inevitably brings one to the southernmost city in continental Kanto, Fuchsia City, home of Koga of the Poisonous Fuchsia Gym and the GO Park.

The player then goes back to either Celadon City or Lavender Town, encountering the other Snorlax on the way back. After the player defeats the Fighting Dojo, he is entitled to either a Hitmonlee or a Hitmonlee. The city's centerpiece building, Silph Co. After his defeat, he flees. After Team Rocket clears out of Saffron City, all buildings previously blocked are now open, as well as the Gym.

The Gym Leader, Sabrina, specializes in Psychic types. The floor, as well, is covered in warp tiles that make it difficult to navigate. After Sabrina's defeat, the player makes his way back to Fuchsia City again and heads out to obtain the rest of the Badges. With six Badges in hand, finally the player can adventure onto the open sea of Routes 19 and 20. A short way across them, of course, is a minor obstacle: the Seafoam Islands. After they have been navigated through, the player can continue on Route 20 to Cinnabar Island, home of Blaine's Fire-type Gym.

After Blaine's defeat, only the final Gym, that of Viridian City, remains. Finally unlocked, the Viridian Gym, whose leader specializes in Ground types, is revealed to be none other than the boss of Team Rocket himself, Giovanni! After his defeat, he vows to disband Team Rocket and disappears. The Elite Four await challengers, those who have proven themselves worthy by getting all eight Badges and making it through Victory Road will face them, in order.

Postgame Adventures in Pokémon: Let's Go, Pikachu! and Pokémon: Let's Go, Eevee! |

Once you've defeated Mewtwo in battle, it's time to catch it! As you might remember, you earned this valuable prize by defeating Giovanni in the Silph Co. If you no longer have it, you also have a slim chance of finding Master Balls as hidden items on the second floor of Cerulean Cave, so don't forget to scout around as you explore. That was Professor Oak's hope when he gifted the device to you, after all. Doing so also nets you a very special item, so it's worth the trouble. Having Mew, Moltres, and Moltres registered to the device will certainly give you bragging rights, but they don't count toward the final tally.

To obtain these version exclusives, you will have to do some trading. Make sure to catch extras of your version exclusives to trade with your friends! Some of these items can be found hidden throughout the Kanto region, but most are also sold at the Celadon Department Store in Celadon City. The exception is the Moon Stone, which is not available for purchase. You can find them as hidden items in the deepest level of Mt.

Head over to Route 10 for a chance to encounter Dratini, and take a swim to the Seafoam Islands to track down Slowpoke. Although you can have a rematch against the Gym Leaders only once per day. This is a great way to earn some more spending money and gain some Exp. When you reenter the Gyms, you will occasionally have to redo some of the challenges that make getting to the Gym Leaders a bit tricky. Luckily, the layouts of these mazes don't change, so if you paid attention when traversing them the first time, they shouldn't pose much of a problem when you return.

If you're wondering what to do with all that extra money you've been raking in from these battles, scroll down to see some suggestions on where to spend your hard-earned cash. Once you've entered the Hall of Fame, you will start to notice new Trainers throughout the Kanto region. Master Trainers can be found anywhere, so you'll want to retrace your steps through every route, tunnel, and building to find them all. Most Master Trainers will challenge you to a one-on-one battle. If you do go up against Master Trainers, the fight can be very difficult. While a single Persian is obtainable in Let's Go, Pikachu! The games sold 3 million units in their launch weekend. The game's music was arranged and composed by Shota Kageyama. The demo version of Let's Go, Pikachu! Page actions Article Discussion View source History.

A notice if you have enabled 2-factor-authentication 2FA on your account! This will help us identify the root of the issues with the 2FA system. Thank you in advance for your help! StrategyWiki has more about this subject:. Spoiler warning: this article may contain major plot or ending details. Nintendo Switch games. Navigation menu Personal tools Create account Log in. Nintendo Switch. Wireless, Bluetooth , Nintendo Switch Online. Game Freak. Generation VII core series. November 16, Let's Go, Pikachu!

Pikachu Partner. Sandshrew Alolan Form. Sandslash Alolan Form. Grimer Alolan Form. Muk Alolan Form. Let's Go, Eevee! Eevee Partner. Vulpix Alolan Form. Ninetales Alolan Form. Meowth Alolan Form. Persian Alolan Form. This section is incomplete. Enjoy your adventure! Our walkthrough is now complete, but we'll be doubling back and adding any additional finds along the way if we spot them. With that in mind, here's our walkthrough of every location you'll encounter in your quest, in order:.

That's the end of our now-complete walkthrough, but keep checking back for more standalone guides and explainers to the game's systems and mechanics in the section just below! Like our main walkthrough, our list of in-depth guides and explainers on specific topics will be expanding over the coming days. Sometimes we include links to online retail stores. If you click on one and make a purchase we may receive a small commission. Read our policy. Jump to comments Staff Writer ChrisTapsell.

Pokémon - Let's Go, Pikachu! And Pokémon - Let's Go, Eevee! - Official Trainer's Guide and Pokédex

That was Professor Oak's hope when he gifted the device to you, after all. Doing so also nets you a very special item, so it's worth the trouble. Having Mew, Meltan, and Melmetal registered to the device will certainly give you bragging rights, but they don't count toward the final tally. To obtain these version exclusives, you will have to do some trading. Make sure to catch extras of your version exclusives to trade with your friends! Some of these items can be found hidden throughout the Kanto region, but most are also sold at the Celadon Department Store in Celadon City. The exception is the Moon Stone, which is not available for purchase.

You can find them as hidden items in the deepest level of Mt. Head over to Route 10 for a chance to encounter Dratini, and take a swim to the Seafoam Islands to track down Slowpoke. Although you can have a rematch against the Gym Leaders only once per day. This is a great way to earn some more spending money and gain some Exp. When you reenter the Gyms, you will occasionally have to redo some of the challenges that make getting to the Gym Leaders a bit tricky. Luckily, the layouts of these mazes don't change, so if you paid attention when traversing them the first time, they shouldn't pose much of a problem when you return. If you're wondering what to do with all that extra money you've been raking in from these battles, scroll down to see some suggestions on where to spend your hard-earned cash. Once you've entered the Hall of Fame, you will start to notice new Trainers throughout the Kanto region. Master Trainers can be found anywhere, so you'll want to retrace your steps through every route, tunnel, and building to find them all.

Most Master Trainers will challenge you to a one-on-one battle. If you do go up against Master Trainers, the fight can be very difficult. If you need to build up your team, head to Cerulean Cave and build up a large Catch Combo by catching multiple Chansey. It provides a ton of Exp. Prepare a variety of moves to catch your opponent off guard, and remember that HP-draining moves like Toxic and defensive moves Protect and Substitute can be useful in turning the tide. Don't be afraid to think outside the box during these Master Trainer battles, as your usual strategies may not work in these extra-challenging matches. In addition to the Gym Leaders and Master Trainers, there are a few other battles that you'll be able to partake in after defeating the Elite Four.

Time to send them blasting off again! Likewise, the artistic Mina is chilling out in Vermilion City, and you can battle her once a day to earn a valuable Bottle Cap. Green can initially be found in Cerulean Cave after you've caught Mewtwo. Her team is Lv. If you challenge the Elite Four again and reenter the Hall of Fame, Green will show up for a rematch, this time near the fountain in Cerulean City.

Red will arrive on the scene once you've bested six Master Trainers. Meet that milestone, and he'll be waiting for you on the Indigo Plateau. Points, but you will claim the Battle Master title—a good way to impress rival Trainers in Link Battles. After facing all those Trainers, you probably have some extra cash burning a hole in your pocket.

To the north, as well, there are two routes leading up to Bill's Sea Cottage. On the way, the player is confronted with a trainer who tries to persuade him to join Team Rocket. Ticket for the S. Anne , a luxury ship moored in Vermilion Harbor and filled with Trainers. Taking a shortcut through a house burglarized by Team Rocket, the player finally arrives at Route 5. After traveling down Routes 5 and 6 , using the Underground Path to bypass Saffron City , the player finally arrives in Vermilion City.

The only thing to do is to show the ticket to the Sailor guarding the harbor, allowing entry into the S. It is here, after assisting the captain with his seasickness, that the player will obtain the Secret Technique Chop Down. With this, the tree blocking the way to Vermilion Gym can be easily chopped down, and Lt. Surge , a Gym Leader specializing in Electric types, can be challenged. The player takes a brief detour to Pewter City's museum's back entrance which was previously blocked due to a Cut-able tree, which can now easily be bypassed. The player obtains the Old Amber in the museum. Heading back to Diglett's Cave, and to Vermilion, the player must go to Cerulean and to the east, onto Route 9 and towards the Rock Tunnel. Rock Tunnel, a still undeveloped natural tunnel between the sections of Route 10 , is pitch black inside; for this reason, the Secret Technique Light Up is recommended, but not required, for navigation of it.

From here, Route 8 leads to Saffron City, but it again must be bypassed by way of another Underground Path , which has its other entrance on Route 7 , on the west side of Saffron. Like the Vermilion Gym, the Celadon Gym also has a small tree blocking the way to its entrance, and an old man outside. The Rocket Game Corner in Celadon is not what it appears to be. In fact, the Game Corner itself is merely the above-ground portion of a sprawling underground complex: the Team Rocket Hideout. The player runs into Jessie and James for a second time and then meets the Team Rocket boss, Giovanni, who gives the player a Silph Scope after being defeated. In front of the stairs to the final floor, blocking the way, is also a final spirit, that of a deceased Marowak that was killed by Team Rocket when they captured her child. Making it all the way to the top reveals Mr.

Fuji, who is attacked by Jessie and James. Now the player is presented with a choice of how to get to Fuchsia City. Traveling down either way the Snorlax are blocking, a faster way via Routes 16, 17, and 18 on Kanto Route 17, or down the Routes 12, 13, 14, and 15, inevitably brings one to the southernmost city in continental Kanto, Fuchsia City, home of Koga of the Poisonous Fuchsia Gym and the GO Park. The player then goes back to either Celadon City or Lavender Town, encountering the other Snorlax on the way back. After the player defeats the Fighting Dojo, he is entitled to either a Hitmonchan or a Hitmonlee. The city's centerpiece building, Silph Co. After his defeat, he flees. After Team Rocket clears out of Saffron City, all buildings previously blocked are now open, as well as the Gym. The Gym Leader, Sabrina, specializes in Psychic types.

The floor, as well, is covered in warp tiles that make it difficult to navigate. After Sabrina's defeat, the player makes his way back to Fuchsia City again and heads out to obtain the rest of the Badges. With six Badges in hand, finally the player can adventure onto the open sea of Routes 19 and 20. A short way across them, of course, is a minor obstacle: the Seafoam Islands. After they have been navigated through, the player can continue on Route 20 to Cinnabar Island, home of Blaine's Fire-type Gym. After Blaine's defeat, only the final Gym, that of Viridian City, remains. Finally unlocked, the Viridian Gym, whose leader specializes in Ground types, is revealed to be none other than the boss of Team Rocket himself, Giovanni!

After his defeat, he vows to disband Team Rocket and disappears. The Elite Four await challengers, those who have proven themselves worthy by getting all eight Badges and making it through Victory Road will face them, in order. After his defeat, Oak arrives, and the player's current party is added to the Hall of Fame. After the credits roll, the player is back in Pallet Town. The previously closed Cerulean Cave is now open, and the powerful Mewtwo can be found inside. An Electrifying Adventure with Pikachu! While a single Persian is obtainable in Let's Go, Pikachu! The games sold 3 million units in their launch weekend.

Pokemon: Let's Go, Pikachu! Wiki Guide - IGN

The Master Trainers are unlocked in the Post-Game. IGN has a complete walkthrough of Let's Go's main quest line, complete with information on trainers and Pokemon in each area of the map. Here's how you can do it on iPhone and Android, and how their stats work. Every Pokemon drops special candy you can use to power up stats. Here is the complete Pokemon Let's Go Eevee! Candy Guide. Pokemon: Let's Go, Pikachu! Wiki Guide. Last Edited: 2 Mar am. Page Tools Page is locked.

See all 5 - All listings for this product. Ratings and Reviews Write a review. Most relevant reviews. Absolutely awesome Arrived just as pictured! Best Selling in Books See all. EUR American Marxism by Mark R. Levin, Hardcover 4. Akira Ser. You may also like. Recommended Cruis'n Blast review - an arcade legend comes home Raw thrills. Splitgate will have forge mode before Halo Infinite, dev insists Forgegate.

Dota 2 will soon remove support for bit systems, Valve warns Changing lanes. Bungie enables matchmaking help for those who get repeatedly thrashed in Destiny 2's Trials of Osiris Lucky pants. Comments 34 Comments for this article are now closed. Thanks for taking part! Hide low-scoring comments Yes No. Order Newest Oldest Best Worst. Threading Expand all Collapse all. Buy things with globes on them And other lovely Eurogamer merch in our official store!